Learning Organizations Ariane Berthoin Antal, Peter Meusburger, Laura Suarsana, 2013-11-19 This book is designed to extend the field of organizational learning in several ways The contributors from three continents bring different perspectives on processes and outcomes of knowledge creation and sharing in and between organizations in diverse contexts They use approaches and concepts from numerous disciplines including the arts economics geography organizational studies psychology and sociology The contributions enrich the spatial turn in organization studies by offering fresh insights for researchers who seek to attend to the contextual dimensions of the phenomena they are studying They provide examples of organizational places and spaces that have not yet received sufficient attention as diverse as temporary international organizations and computer screens

Recovering a Voice David H. Weinberg, 2015-09-03 David Weinberg's multi national study focusing on France Belgium and the Netherlands offers a wide lens through which to view post war efforts to help Jewish communal life recover its voice and its raison d'être By underscoring the similarities in the situation facing Jews across borders he demonstrates how the three communities with the aid of international Jewish organizations utilized unprecedented means to meet unprecedented challenges His thematic approach adds much to our understanding of post war European Jewish life

Creating Value with Big Data Analytics Peter C. Verhoef, Edwin Kooge, Natasha Walk, 2016-01-08 Our newly digital world is generating an almost unimaginable amount of data about all of us Such a vast amount of data is useless without plans and strategies that are designed to cope with its size and complexity and which enable organisations to leverage the information to create value This book is a refreshingly practical yet theoretically sound roadmap to leveraging big data and analytics Creating Value with Big Data Analytics provides a nuanced view of big data development arguing that big data in itself is not a revolution but an evolution of the increasing availability of data that has been observed in recent times Building on the authors extensive academic and practical knowledge this book aims to provide managers and analysts with strategic directions and practical analytical solutions on how to create value from existing and new big data By tying data and analytics to specific goals and processes for implementation this is a much needed book that will be essential reading for students and specialists of data analytics marketing research and customer relationship management
