The Cult of St Anna in Byzantium Eirini Panou, 2018-05-11 The Cult of St Anna in Byzantium is the first undertaking in Byzantine research to study the phenomenon of St Anna s cult from the sixth to the fifteenth centuries It was prompted by the need to enrich our knowledge of a female saint who had already been studied in the West but remained virtually unknown in Eastern Christendom It focuses on a figure little studied in scholarship and examines the formation establishment and promotion of an apocryphal saint who made her way to the pantheon of Orthodox saints Visual and material culture relics and texts track the gradual social and ideological transformation of Byzantium from early Christianity until the fifteenth century This book not only examines various aspects of early Christian and Byzantine civilisation but also investigates how the cult of saints greatly influenced cultural changes in order to suit theological social and political demands The cult of St Anna influenced many diverse elements of Christian life in Constantinople including the creation of sacred spaces and the location of haghiasmata fountains of holy water in the city imperial patronage the social reception of St Anna s story and relic narratives This monograph breaks new ground in explaining how and why Byzantium and the Orthodox Church attributed scriptural authority to a minor

Mixson,2015-11-16 Few medievalists of the last generation have contributed more to our understanding of late medieval religious life than Kaspar Elm Over the last half century his reflections now a monumental corpus of books essays and other publications have explored how the life of the cloister canonry and convent intersected with the world of the laity church and society beyond and how that story reflected the broader sweep of European history Until now relatively few Anglophone scholars and students have had direct access to Elm s work The present translation of several of his most important essays offers itself as a modest remedy to that circumstance Jerusalem, 1920-1922 Pro-Jerusalem Society.
