Mother Camp Female Impersonators In America:

Mother Camp Esther Newton, 1979-05-15 For two years Ester Newton did field research in the world of drag queens homosexual men who make a living impersonating women Newton spent time in the noisy bars the chaotic dressing rooms and the cheap apartments and hotels that make up the lives of drag queens interviewing informants whose trust she had earned and compiling a lively first hand ethnographic account of the culture of female impersonators Mother Camp explores the distinctions that drag queens make among themselves as performers the various kinds of night clubs and acts they depend on for a living and the social organization of their work A major part of the book deals with the symbolic geography of male and female styles as enacted in the homosexual concept of drag sex role transformation and camp an important humor system cultivated by the drag queens themselves Newton s fascinating book shows how study of the extraordinary can brilliantly illuminate the ordinary that social sexual division of personality appearance and activity we usually take for granted Jonathan Katz author of Gay American History A trenchant statement of the social force and arbitrary nature of gender roles Martin S Weinberg Contemporary Sociology Beyond Sexuality Tim Dean, 2000-09 Beyond Sexuality points contemporary sexual politics in a radically new direction Combining a psychoanalytic emphasis on the unconscious with a deep respect for the historical variability of sexual identities this original work of queer theory makes the case for viewing erotic desire as fundamentally impersonal Tim Dean develops a reading of Jacques Lacan that rather than straightening out this notoriously difficult French psychoanalyst brings out the queer tensions and productive incoherencies in his account of desire Dean shows how the Lacanian unconscious deheterosexualizes desire and along the way he reveals how psychoanalytic thinkers as well as queer theorists have failed to exploit the full potential of this conception of desire The book elaborates this by investigating social fantasies about homosexuality and AIDS including gay men s own fantasies about sex and promiscuity in an attempt to illuminate the challenges facing safe sex education Taking on many shibboleths in contemporary psychoanalysis and queer theory and taking no prisoners Beyond Sexuality offers an antidote to hagiographical strains in recent work on psychoanalysis Foucault and sexuality The Queer Composition of America's Sound Nadine Hubbs, 2004-10-18 This book considers the question was the flourishing of modernism in music and related arts in 20th century America a phenomenon created by gay men Margaret Mead Made Me Gay Esther Newton, 2000-11-22 A collection of essays by a pioneering queer anthropologist Making Camp Helene A. Shugart, Catherine Egley Waggoner, 2008-04-15 The rhetorical power of camp in American popular culture Making Camp examines the rhetoric and conventions of camp in contemporary popular culture and the ways it both subverts and is co opted by mainstream ideology and discourse especially as it pertains to issues of gender and sexuality Camp has long been aligned with gay male culture and performance Helene Shugart and Catherine Waggoner contend that camp in the popular media whether visual dramatic or musical is equally pervasive While aesthetic and performative in nature the authors argue that camp female camp in particular is also highly political and that conventions of femininity and female sexuality are negotiated if not always resisted in female camp performances The authors draw on a wide range of references and figures representative of camp both historical and contemporary in presenting the evolution of female camp and its negotiation of gender political and identity issues Antecedents such as Joan Crawford Wonder Woman Marilyn Monroe and Pam Grier are discussed as archetypes for contemporary popular culture figures Macy Gray Gwen Stefani and the characters of Xena from Xena Warrior Princess and Karen Walker from Will Grace Shugart and Waggoner find that these and other female camp performances are liminal occupying a space between conformity and resistance The result is a study that demonstrates the prevalence of camp as a historical and evolving phenomenon in popular culture its role as a site for the rupture of conventional notions of gender and sexuality and how camp is configured in mainstream culture and in ways that resist its being reduced to merely a style

The Politics and Poetics of Camp Moe Meyer,1994 The Politics and Poetics of Camp is a radical reappraisal of the meaning and discourse of camp The contributors look at both the meaning and the uses of camp performance and ask is camp a style or a witty but nonetheless powerful cultural critique The essays investigate camp from its early formations in the seventeenth and eighteenth century to its present manifestations in queer theatre and literature They also take a fascinating look at the complex relationship between queer discourse and decidedly un queer pop culture appropriations on film and on the stage The Politics and Poetics of Camp is an incisive uncontainable and entertaining collection of essays by some of the foremost critics working in queer theory from a number of disciplinary perspectives This book makes a well timed intervention into an emerging debate

Suffering Sappho! Barbara Jane Brickman,2023-11-10 Offering the first major consideration of lesbian camp in American popular culture Suffering Sappho examines a larger than life lesbian menace in mid century media embodied in five queer icons the sicko the monster the spinster the Amazon and the rebel Across comics fiction television and movies of the era Barbara Jane Brickman discovers evidence not just of campy sexual deviants but of troubling female performers whose failures could be epic but whose subversive potential could inspire
