Mathematics Paper 1 2015 Supplementary:

Supplemental Instruction Abbas Strømmen-Bakhtiar, Roger Helde, Elizabeth Susen, 2021 Supplemental Instruction is a program designed to support students in their learning process. The program consists of advanced students supervising new students where the purpose is to improve students' performance and reduce the risk of interruption of studies. Supplemental Instruction was established almost 50 years ago and is used today in universities around the world. This book is about student learning processes and Supplemental Instruction which includes everything from learning activities in SI to developing guidance skills of leaders and more. The book also deals with a comparison of Supplemental Instruction with other group-oriented learning activities and practical aspects of the programme. The book is aimed at anyone who is concerned about study quality in higher education. The contributors are researchers and lecturers at various universities from several countries. The book is part of a trilogy on Supplemental Instruction where the themes for the other books are Digital Technologies and Organisation and Leadership. The editors of the trilogy are Abbas Strømmen, Bakhtiar, Roger Helde and Elisabeth Susen, all three Associate Professors at Nord University, Norway. Crocker, 2017-06-05 Africa has experienced dozens of conflicts over a variety of issues during the past two decades. Responding to these conflicts requires concerted action to manage the crises, the violence, the political discord and the humanitarian consequences of prolonged fighting. It is also necessary to address the long-term social and economic impacts of conflict to rebuild communities, societies and states that have been torn apart. To accomplish this requires the involvement of institutions and groups rarely considered in formal official African conflict management activities: schools, universities, religious institutions, media, commercial enterprises, legal institutions, civil society groups, youth, women and migrants. These groups and organizations have an important role to play in building a sense of identity, fairness, shared norms and cohesion between state and society, all critical components of the fabric of peace and security in Africa. This volume brings together leading experts from Africa, Europe and North America to examine these critical social institutions and groups and consider how they can either improve or impede peaceful conflict resolution. The overarching questions that are explored by the authors are: What constitutes social cohesion and resilience in the face of conflict? What are the threats to cohesion and resilience? And how can the positive elements be fostered and by whom? The second of two volumes on African conflict management capacity by the editors, The Fabric of Peace in Africa: Looking beyond the State, opens new doors of understanding for students, scholars and practitioners focused on strengthening peace in Africa the first volume Minding the Gap African Conflict Management in a Time of change focused on the role of mediation and peacekeeping in managing violence and political crises Community series in immunotherapy with checkpoint inhibitors for non-small cell lung cancer, colon cancer and esophageal cancer, volume II Xuelei Ma,Benjamin Frey,Udo S. International and Cross-Disciplinary Evidence and Debate Stephen J. Ceci,Wendy M. Williams,Shulamit Kahn,2018-04-20 There is no shortage of articles and books exploring women s underrepresentation in science Everyone is interested academics politicians parents high school girls and boys women in search of college majors administrators working to accommodate women s educational interests the list goes on But one thing often missing is an evidence based examination of the problem uninfluenced by personal opinions accounts of lived experiences anecdotes and the always encroaching inputs of popular culture This is why this special issue of Frontiers in Psychology can make a difference In it a diverse group of authors and researchers with even more diverse viewpoints find themselves united by their empirical objective approaches to understanding women s underrepresentation in science today The questions considered within this special issue span academic disciplines methods levels of analysis and nature of analysis what these article share is their scholarly evidence based approach to understanding a key issue of our time Reshaping STEM Education: Strategies for Curriculum Decolonization and Institutional Transformation Zahid Pranjol,Alia Amir,2025-11-13 The field of STEM higher education is currently grappling with the imperative need for transformative discourse to address its historical epistemological and colonial underpinnings Despite significant advancements in STEM disciplines there remains a critical gap in inclusivity and equity within higher educational institutes Recent studies have highlighted the persistent colonial structures that shape STEM education often marginalizing diverse voices and perspectives Efforts to decolonize STEM education are gaining momentum yet there is a pressing need for comprehensive research and reflective insights to uproot these entrenched structures This research topic aims to address these gaps by fostering a robust dialogue that transcends traditional boundaries promoting a deeper understanding of the challenges and opportunities in reshaping STEM education through decolonial lenses This research topic aims to provide a scholarly platform for researchers educators and practitioners to contribute groundbreaking research and reflective insights on decolonizing STEM higher education The primary goal is to facilitate a robust dialogue that transcends traditional boundaries fostering a deeper understanding of the challenges and opportunities in reshaping STEM education through decolonial lenses
