, Emancipation des femmes Madare Sanou, 2016-05-18 This work is concerned with the civil authorities and missionaries project of the emancipation of Madar women in the west of Burkina Faso between 1900 and 1960 The work deals successively with the place of women in the pre colonial village community the beginning of contacts with European civilisation the project s initiators assessment of the women s living conditions and their willingness to change them the means and methods used to this end and the limitations of the project at the time of independence in 1960 The fruit of several years of research by a historian who is a member of the ethnic community this work is a documentary reference work with multiple entries and an index It will be of interest to Africans concerned with the socio political evolution of their continent researchers interested in the history of missions and the African churches and anyone concerned with the whole question of women in modern societies

The Normalisation of Exceptional Counterterrorism Powers Marine Guéguin, 2025-06-30 This book investigates the framing of the terrorist threat in France from 2015 to 2020 as an exceptional challenge which requires a special public security response The book examines how French political actors framed the terrorist threat in French political discourse from an exceptional challenge to a permanent routine threat It provides an in depth critical discourse analysis of the French political narratives surrounding the activation of the tat d urgence state of emergency following the 2015 Charlie Hebdo and Paris terrorist attacks and traces this narrative until 2020 The study explores the securitisation desecuritisation framework showing how the normalisation of emergency powers reflects the ongoing re construction of terrorism within French political contexts The work demonstrates the importance of threat framing and the securitisation of terrorism by considering the colonial legacies embedded in French counterterrorism CT policies By investigating the intersection of CT political discourse temporality and colonial continuity the book challenges traditional notions of exceptionalism in securitisation It argues that the routinisation of counterterrorism measures highlights the impossibility of fully desecuritising terrorism re establishing the status quo revealing how these measures are deeply rooted in France s colonial past This book will be of interest to students of Terrorism Studies Critical Security Studies French politics and International Relations
