Construction: no. 10, October, 1916. Hospital for Insane, Whitby, 1909 Construction Ivan S. Macdonald, Robert Craik McLean, Frederick Reed, M. B. Toutloff, 1908 The Developing Canadian Community Samuel Delbert Clark, 1909
Collection of papers and essays concerning the development of Canadian society Includes a chapter on the gold rush society of British Columbia and the Yukon The Canada Gazette Canada, 1899 Carmina Collegensia Henry Randall Waite, 1868 The Atlantic Paul Butel, 2002-03-11 From Antiquity to modern times the Atlantic has been the subject of myths and legends The Atlantic by Paul Butel offers a global history of the ocean encompassing the exploits of adventurers Vikings explorers such as Christopher Columbus emigrants fishermen and modern traders The book also highlights the importance of the growth of ports such as New York and Liverpool and the battles of the Atlantic in the world wars of the twentieth century The author offers an examination of the legends of the ocean beginning with the Phoenicians and Carthaginians navigating beyond the Pillars of Hercules and details the exploitation and power struggles of the Atlantic through the centuries The book surveys the important events in the Atlantic's rich history and comprehensively analyses the changing fortunes of sea going nations including Britain the United States and Germany John Law Antoin E. Murphy, 1997 John Law 1671 1729 left a remarkable legacy of economic concepts from a time when economic conceptualization was very much at an embryonic stage Yet he is best known and generally dismissed today as a rake duellist and gambler This intellectual biography offers a new approach to Law one that shows him to have been a significant economic theorist with a vision that he attempted to implement as policy in early eighteenth century Europe Law's style marked by a clarity and use of modern terminology stands out starkly against the turgid prose of many of his contemporaries His vision of a monetary and financial system was certainly one of a later age for Law believed in an economy of banknotes and credit where specie had no role to play Ultimately Law failed as a policy maker in part because of the entrenchment of the financiers and their aristocratic backers and in part because of theoretical flaws in his vision His struggle for power took place against the background of Europe's first major stock boom and collapse The collapse of the Mississippi System which he had conceived and the South Sea Bubble led to a lasting impression of Law as a failure It is this impression that Antoin Murphy seeks to dispel Georges Cadoudal Et La Chouannerie Louis Georges de Cadoudal, 1887 A handbook to London, in Engl. and Fr., compiled for the use of members of the 7th International congress of hygiene and demography, 1891 The American College Songster, 1876 The Canada Gazette Canada, 1977 Order and History Eric Voegelin, 2000 Order and History Eric Voegelin's five volume study of how human and divine order are intertwined and manifested in history has been widely acclaimed as one of the great intellectual achievements of our age In the fourth volume The Ecumenic Age Voegelin breaks with the course he originally charted for the series in which human existence in society and the corresponding symbolism of order were to be presented in historical succession The analyses in the three previous volumes remain valid as far as they go Voegelin explains but the original conception proved untenable because it had not taken proper account of the important lines of meaning in history that did not run along lines of time The Ecumenic Age treats history not as a stream of human beings and their actions in time but as the process of man's participation in a flux of divine presence that has eschatological direction The process of history and such order as can be discerned in it Voegelin writes is not a story to be told from the beginning to its happy or unhappy end it is a mystery in process of revelation In the present volume Voegelin applies his revised conception of historical analysis to the Ecumenic Age a pivotal period that extends roughly from the rise of the Persian Empire to the fall of the Roman The age is marked by the advent of a new type of political unit the ecumenic empire achieved at the cost of unprecedented destruction Yet the pragmatic destructiveness of the age is paralleled by equally unprecedented spiritual creativity born from the need to make sense of existence in the wake of imperial conquest These spiritual outbursts gave rise to the great ecumenic religions and raised fundamental questions for human self understanding that extend into our historical present
