

The Lion and the Mouse

Once upon a time, there lived a lion in a forest. One day after a heavy meal. It was sleeping under a tree. After a while, there came a mouse and it started to play on the lion. Suddenly the lion got up with anger and looked for those who disturbed its nice sleep. Then it saw a small mouse standing trembling with fear. The lion jumped on it and started to kill it. The mouse requested the lion to forgive it. The lion felt pity and left it. The mouse ran away. On another day, the lion was caught in a net by a hunter. The mouse came there and cut the net. Thus it escaped. Thereafter, the mouse and the lion became friends. They lived happily in the forest afterwards.

A Poet's Truth Bruce Allen Dick, 2022-02-22 Among students and aficionados of contemporary literature the work of Latina and Latino poets holds a particular fascination Through works imbued with fire and passion these writers have kindled new enthusiasm in their compatriots and admiration in non-Latino readers This book brings together recent interviews with fifteen Latino poets a cross-section of Chicano Puerto Rican and Cuban voices who discuss not only their work but also related issues that help define their place in American literature Each talks at length about the craft of his or her poetry both the influences and the process behind it and takes a stand on social and political issues affecting Latinos across the United States The interviews feature both established writers published as early as the 1960s and emerging artists each of whom
