Explorations in Stylistics Andrew Goatly, 2008-12 PAPERBACK EDITION PUBLISHED JULY 2010 This book explores some of the developments in Stylistics since its pioneer Roman Jakobson identified the patterning of the message as the poetic function It analyses in turn Golding's Pincher Martin Rowling's Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone Housman's A Shropshire Lad Elizabeth Jennings poem One Flesh Harold Pinter's The Birthday Party Ishiguro's The Remains of the Day and a range of poems by John Donne The analyses show how Jakobson s emphasis on the message gives way to emphasis on the code or on undermining the code in the Golding and Donne chapters on the context in the Rowling and Golding chapters on the reader s response in the Housman chapter on the relationship between the addresser s and the addressee s shared assumptions and their use of pragmatic principles in the Pinter and Ishiguro chapters The pivotal Jennings chapter shows how these different stylistic perspectives can be applied variously to the same text This collection of essays will be especially useful for students of Stylistics courses at the undergraduate and graduate level as it illustrates the use of a range of analytical tools Systemic Functional Grammar s analysis of transitivity and theme pragmatic theories of co operation politeness presupposition and inferencing and conceptual metaphor theory Additionally it demonstrates central stylistic concepts such as foregrounding and how to analyse rhythmical lexical grammatical and semantic patterning Whitaker's Books in Print ,1990
