Legendary Locals Of Quincy:

Legendary Locals of Quincy Jack Encarnacao,2014-11-17 From presidents and patriots to locals engaged in service both heartwarming and heartbreaking Quincy has been a place where names endure On Adams Street a stately mansion evokes the nation s second president and his storied kin while the nearby Bernazzani Elementary School recalls a beloved educator who died after suffering a medical episode during a school committee meeting In addition to two presidents and John Hancock Quincy also birthed Dunkin Donuts and Howard Johnson s Hollywood stars Ruth Gordon and Bill Dana punk rock legends the Dropkick Murphys and a host of prominent industrialists who made quarrying and shipbuilding Quincy s national calling cards Less renowned but equally ingrained are the city s local characters Memories of Mike The Winger Zadrozny launching vinyl records like Frisbees around the city still elicit nostalgia Generations who played Little League in the Koch Club recall Richard Koch s commitment to community The homeless honor Fr William McCarthy who founded the shelter Father Bill s Place and personified charity These legendary names individuals both towering and humble made Quincy a uniquely American city and kept it that way Legendary Locals of Cheboygan Matthew J. Friday,2015-04-27

Founded as a lumbering town in the mid 1800s Cheboygan has transformed over the years to be something much less simplistic and much more dynamic so too have its people While some of Cheboygan s residents played important roles in business or commerce others made their mark through philanthropic work service to the community or just by their demeanor History is as much about people as it is about events people like Gordon Scoop Turner who came to Cheboygan for a few months but ended up staying for a lifetime There are businessmen like Millard D Olds who became one of the most successful lumbermen at a time when others were leaving town and George M Humphrey the 55th treasurer of the United States An eye towards the community has also made some residents legendary such as Joyce and Quincy Leslie And of course there are those whose history is shrouded in controversy including Sheriff Fred Ming under whose authority a Native American village was burned to the ground Whatever their story these locals have contributed to the character and history of Cheboygan Legendary Locals of Bangor Richard R. Shaw,Brian F. Swartz,2015-06-08 Since its settlement in 1769

Bangor s greatest resource has been its people Long before 1834 when the town on the Penobscot became a city future legends were born who transformed it into a world class community Hannibal Hamlin served as Abraham Lincoln s first vice president Timber tycoon Sam Hersey financed urban development while less affluent folk such as Molly Molasses also made their mark When philanthropists Stephen and Tabitha King are not writing best selling novels they are spreading their wealth throughout the community Bangor s melting pot includes the Italian Baldacci family and the Jewish baker Reuben Cohen who with his wife Clara raised their son Bill a US senator and defense secretary More infamous but equally legendary is brothel keeper Fanny Jones Paul Bunyan earned a statue on Main Street Airport troop greeters Kay Lebowitz and Bill Knight round out the list of notables They are all jewels in Bangor s crown and each in their own way is a bona fide legend Official
