Meta Religion Religion And Power In World History:

Meta-religion James W. Laine, 2014 Meta Religion is a groundbreaking text that brings power and politics to the fore of our understanding of world religions placing religion at the center of world history This synthetic approach is both transformative and enlightening as it presents a powerful model for thinking differently about what religion is and how it functions in the world

Making Sense of World History Rick Szostak, 2020-10-22 Making Sense of World History is a comprehensive and accessible textbook that helps students understand the key themes of world history within a chronological framework stretching from ancient times to the present day To lend coherence to its narrative the book employs a set of organizing devices that connect times places and or themes This narrative is supported by Flowcharts that show how phenomena within diverse broad themes interact in generating key processes and events in world history A discussion of the common challenges faced by different types of agent including rulers merchants farmers and parents and a comparison of how these challenges were addressed in different times and places An exhaustive and balanced treatment of themes such as culture politics and economy with an emphasis on interaction Explicit attention to skill acquisition in organizing information cultural sensitivity comparison visual literacy integration interrogating primary sources and critical thinking A focus on historical episodes that are carefully related to each other Through the use of such devices the book shows the cumulative effect of thematic interactions through time communicates the many ways in which societies have influenced each other through history and allows us to compare and contrast how they have reacted to similar challenges They also allow the reader to transcend historical controversies and can be used to stimulate class discussions and guide student assignments With a unified authorial voice and offering a narrative from the ancient to the present this is the go to textbook for World History courses and students The Open Access version of this book has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

The Georgetown Companion to Interreligious Studies Lucinda Mosher, 2022 The Georgetown Companion to Interreligious Studies is a comprehensive authoritative creative and cutting edge anthology of fifty essays that taken as a group provide insight into and food for further thought about sub categories of a field of academic inquiry that has developed rapidly in recent decades Interreligious Studies is an academic field in which scholars deliberately draw on at least one other religion in addition to their home tradition when reflecting on worldview questions an arena in which at least one religious discourse is involved with some other discourse Hence Interreligious Studies is inherently multi disciplinary bringing together the study of religion s with methodologies from the fields of anthropology sociology psychology political science history women s studies ecology and more Interreligious Studies gives pride of place to relational intersectional and dialogical approaches as it seeks theoretical and practical insights through the examination of how religions relate to each other to their own internal diversity to various social systems to society at large A recent assessment of Interreligious Studies programs in universities and theological schools indicates that they make wide but not exclusive use of comparative and critical methods that their purposes include cultivation of religious literacy promotion of dialogue fostering of citizenship and professional preparation for leadership in multireligious contexts Critical Humanism Ken Plummer,2021-09-01 We live in a mutilated world and our humanity seems irrevocably damaged Many critics suggest we have reached the end of humanity In this challenging book Ken Plummer suggests that such claims may be premature instead what we need is a new transformative understanding of humanity Critical Humanism critically reflects upon and reimagines humanism for the twenty first century What is now required is a fresh wide ranging imaginary of an open worldly plural and caring humanity It needs to take a critical stance towards older often divisive ideas of what it means to be human while reconnecting to a wider understanding of the rich diversity of life in the pluriverse In an age of post and transhumanist turns Plummer provides a personal political and passionate call for thinkers researchers and activists to not turn their backs on humanism We need instead to create a vital new political imaginary of being human in a connected planet We simply cannot afford to be anti human or posthuman Restoring our belief in humanity has never been more important for edging towards a better world for all Narrative Power Ken Plummer,2019-05-29 Narratives are the wealth of nations they animate life sustain culture and cultivate humanity They regulate and empower us bringing both joy and discontent And they are always embedded in ubiquitous power stories shape power and power shapes story In this provocative and original study Ken Plummer takes us on a journey to explore some of the key dimensions of this narrative power His main focus is on what he calls narratives of suffering and how these change through transformative narrative actions across an array of media forms The modern world is in crisis and long standing narratives are being challenged in five major directions through deep inequalities global state complexities digital risks the perpetual puzzle of truth and the ever emerging contingencies of time Asking how we can build sustainable stories for a better future the book advocates the cultivation of a narrative hope a narrative wisdom and a politics of narrative humanity Narrative Power suggests novel directions for enquiry discusses a raft of innovative ideas and concepts and sets a striking new agenda for research and action History of the Parliament of Religions and Religions Congresses at the World's Columbian Exposition Walter Raleigh Houghton,1893 *The World's History: Western Asia.
