The Tycoon and the Bard John Cairney, 2016-01-31 Andrew Carnegie self-made Scottish American steel millionaire and international philanthropist remembered through trusts charities and public buildings on both sides of the Atlantic Robert Burns Scotland's greatest poet and most famous philanderer an inspiration for future liberal politicians and an almost mythical cultural icon What do the world's greatest tycoon and Scotland's finest bard have in common More than you might think Despite dying thirty-nine years prior to Carnegie's birth Burns work so inspired the philanthropist that he recited all eleven verses of Man Was Made to Mourn at just eight years old Carnegie's enthusiasm for the poet was to accompany him throughout his life as unbeknownst to him parallels between himself and his idol emerged time and again Fuelled by ambition both brilliant Scots went to unusual lengths to better their lives While Burns travelled the length and breadth of their homeland writing poetry that would endure for generations Carnegie left Scotland for America to forge his place in the industrial revolution The connections between Andrew Carnegie and Robert Burns are unexpected and fascinating running from their humble beginnings to their enduring legacies John Cairney The Evolution of Evolution Walter Stephen, 2020-04-24 The Evolution of Evolution takes a multi-layered approach to history moving from discussing an important predecessor to Darwin's Origin of Species The Vestiges of Creation by the Scot Robert Chambers to analysing episodes from Darwin's life and questioning his motives Stephen also discusses the contribution other people made to Darwin's theories both in person and through their own works finishing by discussing interpretations and developments of Darwin's ideas after his death By discussing social factors as well as academic or scientific influences Stephen combines biography with scientific development and shows that understanding the man and the culture in which he lived is vitally important to understanding Darwin's theory Stephen also highlights the many Scottish scientists and their ideas which have been overlooked by previous commentators but who were an essential influence on Darwin The Quest for Robert Louis Stevenson John Cairney, 2020-05-22 This guide follows a trail of places associated with Robert Louis Stevenson John Cairney perhaps best known for writing and starring in The Robert Burns Story is one of the few people to have visited all the places on the RLS trail A Dirty Swindle Walter Stephen, 2020-04-24 Walter Stephen provides an uninhibited look at the misery and toil of World War I through a collection of twelve stories Providing a Scottish perspective he takes a look at reports from home and abroad with scepticism delving deeper to unveil the unencumbered truth Recalling Siegfried Sassoon's words Stephen reveals the failures of those in command as the Great War became known as A Dirty Swindle The varied accounts chronicle the progress of troops from recruitment to training to the frontline as well as revealing a side of Field Marshal Haig never seen before Geographers Hayden Lorimer, 2014-09-25 Volume 33 of Geographers Biobibliographical Studies adds significantly to the corpus of scholarship on geography's multiple histories and biographies with six essays on individuals who have made major contributions to the development of geography in the twentieth century This volume focuses on European geographers including essays on individuals from Britain France and Hungary These are individuals who have made important and distinctive contributions to a diverse range of fields including cartography physical geography oceanography and urban theory As with previous volumes these biographical essays demonstrate the importance of geographers lives in terms of the lived experience of geography in practise
