Leather Guide Dog Harness:

Guide Dogs Diana Lawrenson, 2001 A full colour photo look at the breeding raising training and assessment of young guide dogs and when they are matched with their handlers to become working guide dogs A Place For Us Cassandra Chiu, 2023-05-02 Disability is neither strange nor distant Part autobiography part reflections of social advocate Cassandra Chiu's experiences as a person living with visual impairment A Place For Us is the story of the first woman to be a guide dog handler in Singapore and the first Young Global Leader of the World Economic Forum in Southeast Asia who happens to be blind Cassandra's story starts with her growing up years in 1980s Singapore chronicling how her life unfolds with the onset of Stargardt disease which causes progressive vision loss From pursuing an education navigating motherhood to building a career as a psychotherapist Cassandra openly discusses the attitudes towards disability and her journey towards true independence with her guide dog Esme In inimitable frankness A Place For Us offers an illuminating perspective of a person living with disability beyond the pity party of her life and advocates for a more equal and sustainable future for people with disabilities This is one change maker's voice that must be heard and amplified Dr William Wan the Singapore Kindness Movement Your Service Dog and You Nicola Ferguson, 2023-09-07 Service dogs play an important role in society assisting their handlers in leading independent fulfilling lives These amazing dogs are trained to work with a wide range of disabilities from visual impairments to PTSD and come from a variety of breeds and backgrounds Some service dogs are custom bred and trained by large charities while others are rescue dogs of indeterminate breed trained entirely by their owners Disability knows no bounds and can strike anyone at any time leaving us alone scared and confused with many of us wondering how feasible it would be to integrate a service dog into our lives This is a practical guide written from the perspective of an ordinary dog owner turned service dog trainer following her own need for a service dog It covers everything from service dog breeding and selection how to acquire a service dog basic training and public access work to your dog's eventual retirement Chapters also detail the day to day realities of living with and loving a service dog

Insistent Joey Ramp-Adams, 2025-08-26 When you mix systemic bias discrimination and neuroscience academia with a determined brain injured woman and a service dog you get a powerhouse team of science influencers Insistent chronicles a woman's fight to find meaning and regain her life after a horrific accident where she broke twenty three bones and suffered a traumatic brain injury In constant pain unable to filter environmental stimuli or comprehend spoken language and having lost the ability to speak she isolated herself living in an abyss of darkness and hopelessness The darkness laughed at her feeding on her pain and confusion telling her she was a burden to everyone Faced with immeasurable adversity and the decision whether to live or end it all she chose to fight and find meaning in her life but first she must find hope Hope she found in the eyes of a fluffy white Golden retriever with soft brown eyes named Sampson Wanting to understand what was happening in her brain and rebuild her life she embarked on an educational journey in neuroscience Doing so after a traumatic brain injury was ambitious Doing so with a service dog was unprecedented as service dogs were not allowed in science laboratories Refusing to allow an academic system to break her spirit and make her just go away as many hoped she would she used their resistance and opposition to fuel an entire movement changing policy and culture in science education across the globe with Sampson the Service Dog in Science by her side Journal of Rehabilitation Research and Development ,1983
