Mesa Blanca: Whispering Altar Florencio Guevara, 2022-02-08 Today's Hispanic generation does not always handle the Spanish language as its vernacular. Many a time major confusion occurs within Hispanic families because of the lack of bilingual skills. In the spiritist community this language barrier has all too often caused potential mediums to either continue being handicapped in their development or choose another path that may lead to spiritual pitfalls. Additionally, the English speaking community is fertile ground for new mediums from this cultural group. Many of the alleged translations of prayer books, particularly those of Allan Kardec, are a sham. You cannot translate them literally word for word. It must be translated in context of the cultural idea being presented. In this, whoever attempted the translations has slapped the public in the face with a horrid nonsensical excuse for print. At some time there will have to be a concerted effort to translate these works officially on paper. Up to now it is done word of mouth, which leaves a lot to be desired when attending a misa. Since words evolve in definition over the centuries as well as from one path in life to another, the word cave is a case in point. For mediums, the word originates as boveda. BO = vay dah. The boveda consists of a grouping of glass goblets representing the spiritual quadrant of each medium. Boveda can also mean hidden treasure box. Indeed, this spiritual cave is a sanctuary from which our entities whisper their messages to us.

Mesa Blanca Florencio Guevara, 2019-11-05 My journey from childhood to the present within the circles of spiritism. Family and social reactions. Development techniques. Folklore and cultural tidbits within mediumistic groups. History of what contributed to the makeup of today's spiritism. Relating with the community, particularly family.

Drumming for the Gods María Teresa Vélez, 2000 A history of Felipe Garcia Villamil, Afro-Cuban artist and practitioner of sacred drumming whose music has survived both political and personal upheaval. Magical AI Grimoire Davezilla, 2025-03-03 Chaos magic offers a great deal of inspiration for creative freedom and innovation in magic, but it also outrages many people who liked to think of themselves as guardians of ancient traditions. This new book seems destined to do exactly the same for the next generation of magicians. Its publication may well prove a seminal moment in the history of magic, from the foreword by Peter J. Carroll. Magic workers have long used the tools at hand for crafting spells and rituals. AI technology has opened a new frontier for magic. Some of the most powerful tools at a magician's fingertips today are computers and smart devices. Magical AI Grimoire helps you to understand how to work with technology creatively and ethically in the practice of your magic. Whether you're trying to use promptcraft to perfect a spell, ChatGPT to outline and strengthen a ritual, or generative image software to recreate what you've only seen on the astral plane, Davezilla is your guide. Around the world, witches and magicians are finding that technology has a spiritual essence and a mind of its own. Witches and magicians have been using computers to organize sabbats and ceremonies since the early days of electronic communication. Astrology apps were some of the first applications written, and in most covens it's a good bet that one or more of the members work with computers Davezilla provides context and history for the evolving uses of AI from Alexa to Spotify to ChatGPT and beyond and leads the pioneering curious magician through a new magical realm with responsibility and clarity of insight Activating the Past Andrew Apter, Lauren Derby, 2009-12-14 Activating the Past explores critical historical events and transformations associated with embodied memories in the Black Atlantic world. The assembled case studies disclose hidden historical references to local and regional encounters with Atlantic modernity focusing on religious festivals that represent political and economic relationships in fetishized forms of power and value. Although memories of the slave trade are rarely acknowledged in West Africa and the Americas they have retreated so to speak within ritual associations as restricted repressed even secret histories that are activated during public festivals and through different styles of spirit possession. In West Africa our focus on selected port cities along the coast extends into the hinterlands where slave raiding occurred but is poorly documented and rarely acknowledged. In the Caribbean regional contrasts between coastal and hinterland communities relate figures of the j baro the indio and the caboclo to their ritual representations in Santería Vodou and Candomblé. Highlighting the spatial association of memories with shrines and the ritual condensation of regional geographies we locate local spirits and domestic terrains within co-extensive Atlantic horizons. The volume brings together leading scholars of the African Diaspora who not only explore these ritual archives for significant echoes of the past but also illuminate a subaltern historiography embedded within Atlantic cultural systems.

Espiritismo Hector Salva, 2022-02-01 One of the first books to explore this influential spiritual and magical tradition covering its philosophy while also providing a practical hands on guide. Espiritismo is the Spanish word for Spiritism or Spiritualism spiritual traditions that emerged to great popularity in the US following the Civil War. In the US and Canada Spiritualism's primary focus was on communication between the living and the dead. The spiritual tradition traveled around the world especially in Latin America where it evolved in different ways. The Puerto Rican influence on modern Western magic is profound but largely unheralded. Beginning in the early 20th century Puerto Rican immigrants to the US introduced Espiritismo to the US spiritual landscape strongly affecting the way magic was practiced. Hector Salva's book places Puerto Rican Espiritismo in this broader perspective.

Belief in Dialogue B. Marie Christian, 2005 The works of Julia Alvarez Ana Castillo Sandra Cisneros Rosario Ferre Graciela Limon Pat Mora Judith Ortiz Cofer and Esmerelda Santiago among others are illuminated here. By uniting historical cultural religious and literary commentary Belief in Dialogue is designed to help the student or general reader to more completely enjoy and understand contemporary Latina writing. These highly readable discussions are informed by contemporary feminist and postcolonialist thought about color gender race class and region.
