Gerald Kennedy, Scott Peeples, Caleb Doan, 2019 This handbook is currently in development with individual articles publishing online in advance of print publication At this time we cannot add information about unpublished articles in this handbook however the table of contents will continue to grow as additional articles pass through the review process and are added to the site Please note that the online publication date for this handbook is the date that the first article in the title was published online The Edinburgh Review, 1858 Edgar Allan Poe Arthur Hobson Quinn, 1997-11-25 Renowned as the creator of the detective story and a master of horror the author of The Red Mask of Death The Black Cat and The Murders of the Rue Morgue Edgar Allan Poe seems to have derived his success from suffering and to have suffered from his success The Raven and The Tell Tale Heart have been read as signs of his personal obsessions and The Fall of the House of Usher and The Descent into the Maelstrom as symptoms of his own mental collapse Biographers have seldom resisted the opportunities to confuse the pathologies in the stories with the events in Poe s life Against this tide of fancy guesses and amateur psychologizing Arthur Hobson Quinn s biography devotes itself meticulously to facts Based on exhaustive research in the Poe family archive Quinn extracts the life from the legend and describes how they both were distorted by prior biographies Writings in the Broadway Journal: The annotations Edgar Allan Poe, 1986 Thomas Ollive Mabbott had for nearly forty years planned and prepared for a comprehensive and authoritative collection of all of the writings of Edgar Allan Poe Sadly he lived only to see the volume of Poems make it into print His widow Maureen Cobb Mabbott worked with several of TOM s assistants to complete volumes II and III embracing the Tales and Sketches an effort that occupied another decade of care and dedication The material for subsequent volumes was not nearly as far along as it had been for the first three meaning that even more effort would be needed to proceed with the edition The responsibility fell to Burton R Pollin who had been personally selected by TOM Harvard University Press declined to continue as the publisher Instead the publication was undertaken initially by Twayne and then by Gordian Press which also reprinted the first volume issued by Twayne with a few minor corrections Gordian produced single runs of each volume comprising 500 copies each The collected edition still remained incomplete when Pollin died in 2009 Because it was specifically designed to complement the Mabbott volumes on the poetry and works of fiction there is no duplication of contents Treating the combination of volumes as a single series therefore the set is often referred to collectively as the Mabbott Pollin edition
