Reading Across the Disciplines Karen Manarin, 2022-05-03 Reading Across the Disciplines offers a collection of twelve essays detailing a range of approaches to dealing with students reading needs at the college level Transforming reading in higher education requires more than individual faculty members working on SoTL projects in their particular fields Teachers need to consider reading across the disciplines In this collection authors from Australia and North America teaching in a variety of disciplines explore reading in undergraduate courses doctoral seminars and faculty development activities By paying attention to the particular classroom and placing those observations in conversation with scholarly literature they create new knowledge about reading in higher education from disciplinary and cross disciplinary perspectives Reading Across the Disciplines demonstrates how existing research about reading can be applied to specific classroom contexts offering models for faculty members whose own research interests may lie elsewhere but who believe in the importance of reading

Behind the Curtain of Scholarly Publishing Greg Giberson, Megan Schoen, Christian Weisser, 2022-06-15 Until now there has been little consideration of the intellectual and historical impact editors have had on the young and ever evolving field of writing studies Behind the Curtain of Scholarly Publishing provides new and seasoned scholars with behind the scenes explorations and expositions of the history of scholarly editing and the role of the scholarly editor from the perspectives of current and former editors from important publications within the field Each chapter in the collection examines the unique experiences and individual contributions of its authors during their time as editors offering advice to scholars and potential editors on how to navigate the publication process and understand editorial roles The contributors provide multiple perspectives on the growth transformation and in some cases founding of some of the most influential publishing venues in writing studies The personal and historical narratives along with the unique perspectives and insightful analyses of the individual authors in Behind the Curtain of Scholarly Publishing offer needed transparency and context to what has historically been an opaque yet inevitable and consequential part of academic life This volume will help researchers in the field understand the publishing process Contributors Cheryl Ball David Bartholomae Charles Bazerman Jean Ferguson Carr Douglas Eyman Muriel Harris Byron Hawk Alice Horning Paul Kei Matsuda Laura Micciche Mike Palmquist Michael Pemberton Malea Powell Kelly Ritter Victor Villanueva Victor Vitanza Kathleen Blake Yancey
