Damage Control Emma

Forrest, 2007 Traditionally women share their secrets with their hairdressers But what about their manicurists masseurs chi gong teachers and tattoo artists In Damage Control women wax poetic about the experts and gurus who help them love themselves sharing stories of everything from friendships born in the make up chair to the utter dismay of a truly horrible haircut Minnie Driver finally meets a Frenchman who understands her hair and tries to teach her not to hate it Marian Keyes remembers the blow dry that pushed her over the edge Francesca Lia Block tells the ugly story of the plastic surgeon who promised to make her beautiful Rose McGowan explains why it's harder to be depressed when you're glamorous and shows how it takes a village to transform from mere mortal to movie star Witty and wise Damage Control is an intimate sometimes dark look at our experiences with the professionals who pluck prod and pamper every inch of our bodies and a reminder why we surrender ourselves to their hopefully very capable hands
