Automatic Processing of Various Levels of Linguistic Phenomena Božo Bekavac, Kristina Vučković, 2012-01-18 Every year since 2002 the linguistic development environment NooJ has been enhanced with new online features that allow social scientists to develop new applications and explore new domains The 2011 conference was no exception and the arrival of v3 0 has brought many more features and a new range of applications from the analysis of ancient Arabic and old English texts to the analysis of conversations held by the Mars500 mission s astronauts At the 2011 conference members of the European Meta Net CESAR project announced that NooJ will soon be available Open Source and will become the de facto standard tool for Corpus processing in European research in Social Science Today NooJ is used as a research tool in over 30 academic and research centers in the world and there are NooJ modules available for over 20 languages The international NooJ conference is organized every year 50 participants present their work in the domains of Linguistic formalization Corpus processing and Natural Language Processing applications The present volume contains a selection of papers from the NooJ 2011 International Conference which was held from 13 15 June 2011 in Dubrovnik Croatia This volume presents problems dealing with machine translation information extraction processing of multi word units automatic disambiguation semantic analysis and psychological and literature analysis of various corpora

Foreign Language Program Articulation Carolyn Lally, 2001-01-30 Few matters induce more dialogue among foreign language educators than the problem of students transition between levels of language study Secondary school teachers worry about how best to prepare their students for the demands of postsecondary language study College instructors struggle with how to integrate a diversely prepared freshman population into their curriculum The mission of this volume has been to assemble the theory research and vision of leaders in the field of foreign language articulation into a single volume which will benefit foreign language educators students program administrators and researchers by presenting models of the most recent articulation efforts in the United States Readers are provided with practical suggestions for facilitating placement at the local level and offered theoretical direction for the future The scope of this work is broad enough to reflect the experience and observations of most educators grappling with placement issues while chapter themes offer concrete and theoretical insight into many individual facets of articulation      Speech and Computer Alexey

Karpov,Rodmonga Potapova,2021-09-22 This book constitutes the proceedings of the 23rd International Conference on Speech and Computer SPECOM 2021 held in St Petersburg Russia in September 2021 The 74 papers presented were carefully reviewed and selected from 163 submissions The papers present current research in the area of computer speech processing including audio signal processing automatic speech recognition speaker recognition computational paralinguistics speech synthesis sign language and multimodal processing and speech and language resources Due to the COVID 19 pandemic SPECOM 2021 was held as a hybrid event      Linking Language, Trade and Migration Ruriko

Otomo,2023-06-21 This book examines the effect of trade policy on language which represents an underrecognized area in the field of language policy and planning It argues that trade policies like Japan s Economic Partnership Agreements EPAs have important consequences for national language education policies and for discourses about language and nation Since 2008 Japan has signed the EPAs with Indonesia the Philippines and Vietnam to recruit migrant nurses and eldercare workers and manage their mobility by means of pre employment language training and the Japanese medium licensure examinations Through the analysis of these language management devices this book demonstrates that the EPAs are a manifestation and representation of contemporary language issues intertwined particularly with pressing issues of Japan s social aging and demographic change As the EPAs are intertwined with welfare economy social cohesion and international political and economic relations and competitiveness the book presents a far more complex picture of and a richer potential of language policy      Imaging India, Imaging Japan Unita Sachidanand,2004 Imaging India Imaging Japan A Chronicle of Reflections on Mutual Literature provides a comprehensive history of academic exchange between India Japan in the field of mutual literature It covers the status of Indian literature studies in Japan and Japanese literature studies in India This volume is a product of intensive consultations and dialogue between writers scholars researchers and literary translators of both the countries The book addresses the question of images popular and literary in Indian and Japanese literature It strives to explore the nature of cultural and spiritual interactions between India and Japan Specific case studies have been organised in order to trace the roots of literary influences as well as the main currents in our contemporary literature keeping in view the possibility of learning from the literary perspectives of each other The book also carries an updated bibliography on mutual literature A thoroughly researched collaborative work this volume is first of its kind in the history of international literary exchange that contains contributions from the doyens of Indian and Japanese literature The book would be of considerable interest to a wide cross section of readers such as writers literary critics researchers translators teachers and students of Japan and India      〇〇〇〇〇〇〇〇 ,2012      Linguistics and Language Behavior Abstracts ,2006-10      JLPT Final Test N3 〇〇
