Textualizing the Immigrant Experience in Contemporary Quebec Susan Ireland, Patrice J. Proulx, 2004-04-30 Immigration to Quebec has led to the decline of the idea of the homogenous national identity within French language literary production and the creation of a new literature of multiple Quebecois identities according to editors Ireland and Proulx Concepts of diversity and hybridity run throughout the 16 essays contained here which seek to collectively explore the way immigrant writers position themselves in relation to Quebecois literature and society A few essays explore the general contours of Quebecois cinema and theater in relation to these questions but the majority are devoted to more focused examinations of particular writers of novels short stories and poems

Authenticity and Legitimacy in Minority Theatre Patrice Brasseur, Madelena Gonzalez, 2010-04-16 Contemporary theatre is one of the best ways for ethno cultural minorities to express themselves whether they be of indigenous origin or immigrants It is often used to denounce social injustice and discrimination and more generally it helps to air questions debated in the wider community It may also express itself thanks to the staging of collective memory for it constitutes a privileged space for the exploration of the trauma of the past colonial for example as well as providing a means of effecting the reconfiguration of a new identity or of articulating an uneasiness about that identity Should minority theatre increase its visibility in relation to the mainstream or on the contrary remain on the margins and assert its specificity This question is at the centre of French Canadian experience for example but also applies to other postcolonial societies in Europe and elsewhere In order to maintain its cultural authenticity should this type of theatre distinguish itself from a multiculturalism that runs the risk of political and social recuperation If it is unable to resist the model proposed by globalization and widespread cultural dissemination will it lose its legitimacy Can and should there be a form of popular art at the service of the community The term minority raises questions that will be examined by the articles collected in this volume What is the definition of a minority Does this term refer to experimental and avant garde art forms as well as to ethno cultural drama Contemporary theatre is characterized by an aesthetics of hybridity in what measure is this the case for theatre outside the mainstream The exploration of this kind of theatre necessitates an examination of the very concept of theatre per se Since the development of the electronic media as the privileged vector of culture has not the theatrical genre itself become a minority art form These are some of the pressing questions that this volume will try to address thanks to a cross cultural multidisciplinary approach that aims to reveal the rich diversity of the field under study Arthur Honegger Harry Halbreich,1999 Arthur Honegger 1892 1955 Swiss by nationality French by education and residence was a major composer of the 20th century Although he earned popular acclaim early in his career in his later years his consistently tonal musical language was considered outmoded His most significant works include five symphonies a large body of chamber music and several large scale oratorios that combine choral and instrumental writing with declaimed narrative in a uniquely effective way HARDCOVER
