Life Science Paper Kzn Prelim 2014:

Re-Authoring Life Narratives After Trauma: A Holistic Narrative Model of Care Charles B. Manda, 2019-12-12 Re authoring Life Narratives after Trauma is an interdisciplinary specialist resource for traumatic stress researchers practitioners and frontline workers who focus their research and work on communities from diverse religious backgrounds that are confronted with trauma death illness and other existential crises This book aims to argue that the biopsychosocial approach is limited in scope when it comes to reaching a holistic model of assessing and treating individuals and communities that are exposed to trauma The holistic model must integrate an understanding of and respect for the many forms of religion and spirituality that clients might have Pargament 2011 It will not only bring a spiritual perspective into the psychotherapeutic dialogue but it will also assist in dealing with the different demands in pastoral ministry as related to clinical and post traumatic settings The book makes several contributions to scholarship in the disciplines of although not limited to traumatic stress studies pastoral care and counselling psychology and psychiatry Firstly the book brings spirituality into the psychotherapeutic dialogue traditionally religious and spiritual topics have not been a welcome part of the psychotherapeutic dialogue Secondly it underscores the significance of documenting literary narratives as a means of healing trauma writing about our traumas enables us to express things that cannot be conveyed in words and to bring to light what has been suppressed and imagine new possibilities of living meaningfully in a changed world Thirdly it proposes an extension to the five stage model of trauma and recovery coined by Judith Herman

Curriculum and the Specialization of Knowledge Michael Young, Johan Muller, 2015-09-07 This book presents a new way for educators at all levels from early years to university to think about curriculum priorities It focuses on the curriculum as a form of specialised knowledge optimally designed to enable students to gain access to the best knowledge available in any field Papers jointly written by the authors over the last eight years are revised for this volume It draws on the sociology of knowledge and in particular the work of Emile Durkheim and Basil Bernstein opening up the possibilities for collaborative inter disciplinary enquiry with historians philosophers and psychologists Although primarily directed to researchers university teachers and graduate students its arguments about specialised knowledge have profound implications for policy makers

Evolution Education Around the Globe Hasan Deniz, Lisa A. Borgerding, 2018-06-21 This edited book provides a global view on evolution education It describes the state of evolution education in different countries that are representative of geographical regions around the globe such as Eastern Europe Western Europe North Africa South Africa North America South America Middle East Far East South East Asia Australia and New Zealand Studies in evolution education literature can be divided into three main categories a understanding the interrelationships among cognitive affective epistemological and religious factors that are related to peoples views about evolution b designing implementing evaluating evolution education curriculum that reflects contemporary evolution understanding and c reducing antievolutionary attitudes This volume systematically summarizes the evolution education literature across these three categories for each country or geographical region The individual chapters thus include common elements that facilitate a cross cultural meta analysis Written for a primarily academic audience this book provides a much needed common background for future evolution education research across the globe Preventing HIV Among Young People in Southern and Eastern Africa Kaymarlin Govender,Nana K Poku,2020-12-30 This book provides an overview of the current epidemiology of the HIV epidemic among young people in Eastern and Southern Africa ESA and examines the efforts to confront and reduce the high level of new HIV infections amongst young people Taking a multi dimensional approach to prevention the contributors discuss the many challenges facing these efforts in view of the slow progress in curbing the incidence of HIV amongst young people focusing particularly on the structural and social drivers of HIV Through an examination of these issues chapters in this book provide valuable insights on how to mitigate HIV risk among young people and what can be regarded as the catalysts to mounting credible policy and programmatic responses required to achieve epidemic control in the region The contributors draw on examples from a range of primary and secondary data sources to illustrate promising practices and challenges in HIV prevention demonstrating links between conceptual approaches to prevention and lessons learnt from implementation projects in the region Bringing together social scientists and public health experts who are actively engaged in finding effective solutions the book discusses which interventions works why they work and the limitations and gaps in our knowledge to curb the pandemic amongst young people As such it is an important read for researchers focusing on HIV AIDS and public health The Open Access version of this book available at <https://www.taylorfrancis.com/books/e/10.4324/9780429462818> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license Tribing and Untribing the Archive Carolyn Hamilton,Nessa Leibhammer,2016 These volumes track how the domain of the tribal and traditional was marked out and came to be sharply distinguished from modernity how it was denied a changing history and an archive and was endowed instead with a timeless culture These volumes also offer strategies for engaging with the materials differently from the interventions effected in contemporary artworks to the inserting of nameless timeless objects of material culture into histories of individualized and politicized experience Publisher's description Coping With Environmental Fluctuations: Ecological and Evolutionary Perspectives Sylvain Giroud,Julia Nowack,Kenneth B. Multidisciplinary Approaches to the Study of Stone Age Weaponry Radu Iovita,Katsuhiko Sano,2016-05-28 The objective of this volume is to showcase the contemporary state of research on recognizing and evaluating the performance of stone age weapons from a variety of viewpoints including investigating their cognitive and evolutionary significance New archaeological finds and experimental studies have helped to bring this subject back to the forefront of human origins research In the last few years investigations have expanded beyond examining the tools themselves to include studies of damage caused by projectile weapons on animal and hominin bones and skeletal asymmetries in ancient hominin populations Only recently has there been a growing interest in controlled and replicative experiments Through this book readers will be updated in the state of knowledge through a multidisciplinary scientific reconstruction of prehistoric weapon use and its implications Contributions from expert authors are organized into three themed parts recognizing weapon use experimental and archaeological studies of impact traces performance of weapon systems factors influencing penetration depth etc and behavioral and evolutionary ramifications cognitive and ecological effects of using different weapons

Anthropocene or Capitalocene? Jason W. Moore,2016-06-01 The Earth has reached a tipping point Runaway climate change the sixth great extinction of planetary life the acidification of the oceans all point toward an era of unprecedented turbulence in humanity's relationship within the web of life But just what is that relationship and how do we make sense of this extraordinary transition Anthropocene or Capitalocene offers answers to these questions from a dynamic group of leading critical scholars They challenge the theory and history offered by the most significant environmental concept of our times the Anthropocene But are we living in the Anthropocene literally the Age of Man Is a different response more compelling and better suited to the strange and often terrifying times in which we live The contributors to this book diagnose the problems of Anthropocene thinking and propose an alternative the global crises of the twenty first century are rooted in the Capitalocene the Age of Capital Anthropocene or Capitalocene offers a series of provocative essays on nature and power humanity and capitalism Including both well established voices and younger scholars the book challenges the conventional practice of dividing historical change and contemporary reality into Nature and Society demonstrating the possibilities offered by a more nuanced and connective view of human environment making joined at every step with and within the biosphere In distinct registers the authors frame their discussions within a politics of hope that signal the possibilities for transcending capitalism broadly understood as a world ecology that joins nature capital and power as a historically evolving whole Contributors include Jason W Moore Eileen Crist Donna J Haraway Justin McBrien
