Orange Is the New Black Piper Kerman, 2010-04-06 1 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER NOW A NETFLIX ORIGINAL SERIES With a career a boyfriend and a loving family Piper Kerman barely resembles the reckless young woman who delivered a suitcase of drug money ten years before But that past has caught up with her Convicted and sentenced to fifteen months at the infamous federal correctional facility in Danbury Connecticut the well heeled Smith College alumna is now inmate 11187 424 one of the millions of people who disappear down the rabbit hole of the American penal system From her first strip search to her final release Kerman learns to navigate this strange world with its strictly enforced codes of behavior and arbitrary rules She meets women from all walks of life who surprise her with small tokens of generosity hard words of wisdom and simple acts of acceptance Heartbreaking hilarious and at times enraging

Kerman's story offers a rare look into the lives of women in prison why it is we lock so many away and what happens to them when they're there Praise for Orange Is the New Black Fascinating The true subject of this unforgettable book is female bonding and the ties that even bars can't unbind People four stars I loved this book It's a story rich with humor pathos and redemption What I did not expect from this memoir was the affection compassion and even reverence that Piper Kerman demonstrates for all the women she encountered while she was locked away in jail I will never forget it Elizabeth Gilbert author of Eat Pray Love This book is impossible to put down because Kerman could be you Or your best friend Or your daughter Los Angeles Times Moving transcends the memoir genre's usual self-centeredness to explore how human beings can always surprise you USA Today It's a compelling awakening and a harrowing one both for the reader and for Kerman Newsweek

Reading Arab Women's Autobiographies Nawar Al-Hassan Golley, 2010-01-01 Authors of autobiographies are always engaged in creating a self to present to their readers This process of self-creation raises a number of intriguing questions why and how does anyone choose to present herself or himself in an autobiography Do women and men represent themselves in different ways and if so why How do differences in culture affect the writing of autobiography in various parts of the world This book tackles these questions through a close examination of Arab women's autobiographical writings Nawar Al-Hassan Golley applies a variety of western critical theories including Marxism colonial discourse feminism and narrative theory to the autobiographies of Huda Shaarawi Fadwa Tuqan Nawal el Saadawi and others to demonstrate what these critical methodologies can reveal about Arab women's writing At the same time she also interrogates these theories against the chosen texts to see how adequate or appropriate these models are for analyzing texts from other cultures This two-fold investigation sheds important new light on how the writers or editors of Arab women's autobiographies have written documented presented and organized their texts

Women, Autobiography, Theory Sidonie Smith, Julia Watson, 1998 The first comprehensive guide to the burgeoning field of women's autobiography Essays from 39 prominent critics and writers explore narratives across the centuries and from around the globe A list of more than 200 women's autobiographies and a comprehensive bibliography provide invaluable information for scholars teachers and readers

Memoirs of a Militant Nawal Qasim Baidoun, 2023-01-11 A first person account of a young woman activist imprisoned for four years in the notorious Khiam Women's Prison Shattering the notion that Muslim women did not play an active role in armed resistance and national liberation struggles A unique and rare insight into the life of a woman living in extreme and uncertain conditions Recounting the Israeli invasion and occupation of South Lebanon Brilliantly translated by Michelle Hartman and Caline Nasrallah from McGill University in Montreal An important message about the need to liberate prisoners and the call for solidarity in the face of injustice Shattering the notion that Muslim women did not play an active role in armed resistance national liberation struggles In order to carry on with life in prison you must believe you will be there forever In the haunting and inspiring Memoirs of a Militant My Years in the Khiam Women's Prison Nawal Baidoun offers us her first person account of the life of a young woman activist imprisoned for four years as well as the events leading up to her arrest and detention Born into a nationalist family in Bint Jbeil Lebanon not far from the location of the prison itself Baidoun like so many others found herself compelled to take up arms to resist the Israeli occupation Her memoir skillfully weaves together two stories that of the oppressive conditions facing ordinary people and families in South Lebanon and that of the horrors of daily life and the struggle for survival inside the prison itself Arrested for her role in planning the assassination of the well known Israeli agent and collaborator Husayn Abdel Nabi Baidoun was at one point detained with Soha Bechara a fellow militant whose similar operation is better known Her activism rooted in her Islamic faith Baidoun shatters the notion that Muslim women did not play an active role in the armed resistance Much like her sisters in Algeria and Palestine Nawal Baidoun belongs to a generation of Muslim women in the Arab world who played a significant role in their national liberation struggles She describes the intense mental and physical torture she endured and her refusal to confess despite this Memoirs of a Militant offers us rare and unique insight into the strength and courage of Baidoun in extreme circumstances and conditions Nawal Baidoun herself has said that she wrote this book as a sort of history lesson for the generations who come after her to show the ways in which women actively took part in the resistance and struggle against the occupation Her strongly abolitionist message about prisons and the need to liberate all prisoners and detainees resonates strongly today as does her call for solidarity in the face of injustice

Smith, 2000 Global Feminisms Since 1945 is an innovative historical introduction to the issues of contemporary feminism with a truly global perspective It is a concise anthology considering the similarities and differences between feminisms in West and East North and South and highlighting class racial ethnic and imperial tensions and claims in the twentieth century The book analyses the roots development and in some cases the conclusions of feminisms and how they have interacted From the European and American feminist movements to those in the ex Soviet Union and women s rights groups in Africa and East Asia Global Feminisms Since 1945 examines the key economic technological sexual reproductive ecological and political debates

Muslim Feminism and Feminist Movement Abida Samiuddin, R. Khanam, 2002 The sole objective of this three volumes book Muslim Feminism and Feminist Movement in South Asia India Pakistan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka is to provide a comprehensive analysis of the nature and motivation of feminism and feminist movement in Islamic perspective Here we are presenting few important articles contributed by eminent scholars on this subject There have been three major waves of Muslim feminist expression first wave is an expression gender consciousness individual feminist writings second wave is everyday activism including individual innovations in daily life and third wave is an organised movement activism which is highly visible and more confrontational

Arab Women Suha Sabbagh, 1996 The lives of Arab women today are complex diverse and far more multi faceted than those of the one dimensional creatures of veiled passivity who inhabit the imaginations of so many Western experts In most Arab countries women face constricting laws and social customs that hold them back from full participation in their societies Some as a result lead lives of passive submission But others rage against those institutional obstacles organize other women to challenge male domination of their public and private lives and seize every opening large or small to move the rights of women at least that one next step Arab women labor in dangerous factories and unmechanized fields they keep families intact and care for their children without access to modern technology sometimes even without electricity or clean water But they also fill medical and engineering schools in universities throughout the Arab world they are creating some of the greatest art and literature of their rich cultures they serve bravely in overwhelmingly male parliaments and they organize and fight with or without men s consent for incremental democratic gains and sometimes for their own rights as women This collection brings together a distinguished cast of Arab women writers and other experts and analyzes the lives the diverse roles and the means of overcoming the challenges that confront women in today s Arab societies Essays examine feminism women s education and daily lives women s views of Islam and women Islamists and women s roles in war and literature It also includes interviews with women political leaders

such as Palestine's Hanan Mikhail Ashrawi and Jordan's Leila Sharaf Back cover

Migrating Words and Worlds E. Anthony Hurley, Renée Brenda Larrier, Joseph McLaren, 1999 The notion of an African cultural community across ethnic national and geographical boundaries has persisted in the imagination of writers artists and intellectuals This idea has been reinforced by the migrations of writers of African descent throughout the world criss crossing frontiers of land and language The very terms African and Pan African remain sites of intellectual contention generating a variety of political literary and cultural interpretations and ideological positions The essays in this volume demonstrate how concepts of Pan Africanism which historically were concerned with colonialism racial identity and African unity extend the discussion of an Africa that exists beyond the continent and includes the Caribbean the Americas and Europe Indeed the articles in this book update the definitions of Pan Africanism by focusing especially on literary and cultural perspectives with special reference to writers from Africa North South East West the U S and the Caribbean as well as arabophone anglophone francophone lusophone and creole linguistic communities The volume is divided into five sections Migrating Words Migrations Journeys and Identifies Migrations of Orality Music Poetry and Proverbs Migrating Worlds Redefining Africa's Borders and Migrating Writers Contributors include internationally recognized writers Nawal El Saadawi Egypt Ngugi wa Thiong'o Kenya Dany Bebel Gisler Guadeloupe Shimmer Chinodya Zimbabwe and Amiri Baraka U S as well as an array of scholars from Africa the Caribbean Europe Asia and the Americas who gathered at Stony Brook State University of New York for the annual A conference in 1996

The Top Books of the Year Memoirs From The Womens Prison The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have charmed audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Memoirs From The Womens Prison : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Memoirs From The Womens Prison : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Popen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and gripping novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
