Social Studies Education in South and South East Asian Contexts Kerry J Kennedy,2021-07-22 The education of young people is context bound This edited volume explores the contexts that characterise South and South East Asia and their influence on social studies education There is not a single context across this broad geographical expanse rather different religions different political systems and different values exert influences that create distinctive programmes that characterise different countries Yet there are also commonalities such as the post colonial nature of most of the countries portrayed in this book determined efforts at establishing new national communities and multiple value systems that lead to distinctive local priorities There are also voices of resistance in these chapters recognising the realities of local contexts but also recognising the need for change Social studies education in these contexts may well be descended from its origins in North America but in South and South Asian contexts it has taken on new purposes new forms and new values Education researchers policymakers and postgraduate students in comparative education will find the volume useful in its exploration and comparison of the social studies curricular and reforms that shaped them Research Approaches in Urban Agriculture and Community Contexts Levon T. Esters, Amie Patchen, Isha DeCoito, Neil Knobloch, 2021-07-27 This book will fill a void in the literature around research and program design and the impact of such experiences on learning outcomes within urban agricultural contexts In particular this book will cover topics such as STEM integration science learning student engagement learning gardens and curriculum design Sessional Papers Great Britain.
