Research for Educational Change Jill Adler,Anna Sfard,2016-06-17 Research for Educational Change presents ways in which educational research can fulfil its commitments to educational practice Focussing its discussion within the context of mathematics education it argues that while research generated insights can have beneficial effects on learning and teaching the question of how these effects are to be generated and sustained is far from evident The question of how to turn research into educational improvement is discussed here in the context of learning and teaching hindered by poverty and social injustice In the first part of the book four teams of researchers use different methodologies while analysing the same corpus of data collected in a South African mathematics classroom In the second part each of these teams makes a specific proposal about what can be done and how so that its research generated insights have a tangible beneficial impact on what is happening in mathematical classrooms Combining two discourses that of researchers speaking to one another and that of researchers communicating their insights to those responsible for educational practice the book deals with the perennial question of communication between those who study educational processes and those who are directly responsible for teacher education educational research and classroom practices This book will be key reading for postgraduates researchers and academics in education and particularly in the areas of mathematics education education research teacher education and classroom practice It will also appeal to teacher educators practitioners and undergraduate students interested in educational research

Policy, Politics and Poverty in South Africa Jeremy Seekings,Nicoli Natrass,Kasper,2015-07-21 Seekings and Natrass explain why poverty persisted in South Africa after the transition to democracy in 1994 The book examines how public policies both mitigated and reproduced poverty and explains how and why these policies were adopted The analysis offers lessons for the study of poverty elsewhere in the world

African Governance Report III 2013 ,2013 The African Governance Report the most comprehensive report on governance in Africa assesses and monitors the progress of African countries on governance identifies capacity gaps in governance institutions and proposes policies and strategic interventions to improve governance on the continent This third edition of the Report while continuing to monitor governance trends adopts a thematic approach elections and the management of diversity in Africa Elections are central to democratic governance and the political management of diversity in plural societies While elections are held with greater regularity in Africa their content and quality remains suspect in many countries with Africa s rich diversity deployed as a combusive tool in electoral conflicts Elections have often triggered conflict with violence tensions acrimonies and sharp elite divisions surrounding electoral processes and outcomes a worrying trend for Africa s democratic future The Report investigates elections in the face of managing diversity in Africa It recommends major electoral institutional political and constitutional reforms to enable elections to facilitate the democratic management of diversity while significantly improving their quality and credibility These include reform of the party system to make it more inclusive and democratic a move to more proportional electoral systems and an increase in the autonomy and effectiveness of election management boards The Report argues that regional and subregional initiatives and frameworks for elections democracy and governance have to be implemented and monitored to improve electoral performance and promote democratic consolidation and stability Page 4 of cover Engineering ,1937 An Introductory Guide to EC

Competition Law and Practice Valentine Korah,1994 Stopping the Spies Jane Duncan,2018-06-01 Is South Africa on its way to becoming a surveillance state and will it need a whistleblower In 2013 former National Security Agency NSA contractor Edward Snowden leaked secret documents revealing that state agencies like the NSA had spied on the communications of millions of innocent citizens International outrage resulted but the Snowden documents revealed only the tip of the surveillance iceberg Apart from insisting on their rights to tap into communications more and more states are placing citizens under surveillance tracking their movements and transactions with public and private institutions The state is becoming like a one way mirror where it can see more of what its citizens do and say while citizens see less and less of what the state does owing to high levels of secrecy around surveillance In this book Jane Duncan assesses the relevance of Snowden s revelations for South Africa In doing so she questions the extent to which South Africa is becoming a surveillance society governed by a surveillance state Duncan challenges members of civil society to be concerned about and to act on the ever expanding surveillance capacities of the South African state Is surveillance used for the democratic purpose of making people safer or is it being used for the repressive purpose of social control especially of those considered to be politically threatening to ruling interests She explores the forms of collective action needed to ensure that unaccountable surveillance does not take place and examines what does and does not work when it comes to developing organised responses Index to Scientific & Technical Proceedings ,1979 Monthly with annual cumulation Published conference literature useful both as current awareness and retrospective tools that allow searching by authors of individual papers as well as by editors Includes proceedings in all formats i e books reports journal issues etc Complete bibliographical information for each conference proceedings appears in section titled Contents of proceedings with accompanying category permutterm subject sponsor author editor meeting location and corporate indexes Contains abbreviations used in organizational and geographical names
