compagnie Armand-Louis de Gontaut duc de Biron, 1911 Autour de l'extrême littéraire Alastair Hemmens, Russell Williams, 2012-12-18 The extreme is an essential aspect of contemporary experience Thrill seekers spend the weekend in the search of the adrenaline rush of extreme sports In the political arena the world has begun to rediscover the split between the extreme left and the extreme right Through 24 hour rolling news images of violence torture and war are televised unremittingly into the living room while the Internet places hardcore pornography snuff film and cannibalism within easy reach of anyone with a personal computer or a smartphone The extreme has even become a quality companies seek to associate with the most banal of commodities such as ice cream and hair gel These different manifestations of extremity suggest a contradictory even paradoxical relationship with the extreme The contributors to this book explore how writing in French from the Middle Ages to the present day has interrogated extremity Taken together these essays demonstrate that the quality of the extreme can be applied to a great number of texts for different reasons and from myriad perspectives Moreover the extreme is revealed as a quality both distinct from and in tension with the crossing of boundaries associated with transgression It is a movement towards and away from a centre of radiation that escapes cultural norms without necessarily reinforcing them This sensation of rushing and wandering outside the boundaries of what is considered safe and normal provides the extreme with its adrenaline charged response of excitement or horror The analyses contained in this volume consider a number of manifestations of the extrême littéraire The ambiguities of gender in medieval romance are explored in the context of the Arthurian court The 19th century is examined through the prose poems of Baudelaire and the littérature sauvage of the Zutistes The difficulties of writing the trauma of war and genocide in the 20th century are discussed through the work of Jorge Semprín and Agota Kristof The contemporary extreme in French literature is examined in the autofiction of Christine Angot the work of Annie Ernaux and Catherine Millet the controversial novels of Michel Houellebecq and the worldwide influence of the Marquis de Sade on writing today Whilst the extrême littéraire may have a wide variety of expressions in French literature it is always outside beyond and far from the centre of our everyday experience It shocks us excites us and horrifies us often all at once This book seeks to provide an insight into how and why the extreme has fascinated and continues to fascinate the French literary imagination      Contes de l'abbé de Voisenon Claude Henri de Fusée de Voisenon, 1878      Courtly Literature Keith Busby, Erik Kooper, 1990-01-01 The International Courtly Literature Society aims to promote the study of courtly literature primarily but not exclusively of medieval Europe The 45 articles selected here from the papers presented at the 5th Congress center around three themes rhetoric and courtly literature the audience of courtly literature and courtly literature in a comparative perspective There are contributions by specialists in Old French Literature on such diverse topics as Adenet le Roi René d'Anjou Le Bel Inconnu and 15th century prose chronicles by Provençalists on the eternal topic of courtly love by Anglicists on Chaucer Henryson Malory and others by Germanists on Heinrich von Morungen der Schwanritter and Walther von der Vogelweide by Hispanists on La Celestina and the Historia Troiana there are also articles on Italian Dutch and Scandinavian literature and two relating to Persian and Arabic courtly texts      La Semaine littéraire , 1898
