Inventions of Reading Clayton Koelb, 2019-06-30 Where do writers of fiction get their ideas Clayton Koelb here takes issue with those who regard inspiration or imitation as primary forces influencing literary invention He finds that another mechanism which he calls rhetorical construction underlies much fiction and some nonfiction as well Rhetorical construction Koelb says is a way of producing writing out of reading The rhetorical writer begins by discovering an interpretive crux in a familiar text a passage from the Bible for example or a commonplace expression and then proceeds to imagine a fictional situation in which all the meanings of the passage contradictory though they may seem may be realized According to Koelb inventions of reading do not stop with the discovery of the eternal and inevitable deconstructibility of language they somehow generate an urge to put language back together through the invention of a fictional world Among the texts he discusses are writings by Boccaccio Rabelais Goethe Schiller Kleist Hawthorne Hans Christian Andersen Nietzsche Kafka Calvino and Flannery O Connor Egypt and Syria in the Fatimid, Ayyubid and Mamluk Eras III Urbain Vermeulen, 2001 This volume contains 24 papers presented at the sixth seventh and eighth Colloquium on the History of Egypt and Syria in the Fatimid Ayyubid and Mamluk Eras organized at the University of Leuven in May 1997 1998 and 1999 The main purpose of these annual colloquia is to bring together an international body of scholars from different fields of research around the central theme of Syro Egypt s high and late medieval history Resulting now in a third volume of this kind volume I OLA 73 volume II OLA 83 these proceedings again cover areas of research in the fields of medieval sociology economy archaeology codicology theology and administrative and political history ranging from the 10th to the late 15th century AD The individual contributions deal with a great number of topics including Syro Egyptian society and architecture the Crusades aspects of civil and military administration and organisation role and value of pious endowments and the intricacies of Syro Egyptian politics Apocalypse de Chiokoyhikoy, Chef des Iroquois Chiokoyhikoy, Robert Griffin, Donald A.
