Theology and Sexuality, Reproductive Health, and Rights André S. Musskopf, Edith González Bernal, Mauricio Rincón Andrade, 2022-01-28 This volume presents a project of empirical research on issues of theology sexuality and reproductive health and rights It was carried out by researchers from two theological institutions in Brazil and Colombia in close contact with the grassroots in various civil society organizations Numerous studies at twenty six Latin American institutions on the relation between theology and HIV AIDS prepared the way for this project It promotes and applies methodologies for Latin American popular education and participatory action research PAR While the project was finalized long before the COVID 19 pandemic hit Latin America and the world the pandemic gave fresh evidence of the relevance of the project The present volume is the English translation of the initial Portuguese and Spanish reports about the project enriched with a new preface The editors are delighted that this translation will help spread the vital insights from this research to a wider and global readership

Living in a World of Neighbours Ryszard Bobrowicz, Anna Hjalmar, Ulrich Schmiedel, 2025-08-21 Migration is stirring up controversy across Europe Politicians and pundits point to clashes that flare up or so the story goes when people of different religious and nonreligious ways of life come together This book challenges that story Setting an experimental and explorative agenda it brings together activist and academic voices affiliated with A World of Neighbours a multi faith network that has been engaging with people on the move across Europe These voices from a wide variety of contexts and countries tell a different story We are already living in a world of neighbours whether we like it or not Through practices of living together that cut across religious and nonreligious boundaries we can change the world we live in

Justification in a Post-Christian Society Carl-Henric Grenholm, Goran Gunner, 2015-03-26 Since the Reformation in the sixteenth century Lutheran traditions have impacted culture and politics in many societies At the same time Lutheran belief has had an effect on personal faith morality and ethics Modern society however is quite different from that at the time of the Reformation How should we evaluate Lutheran tradition in today s Western multicultural and post Christian society Is it possible to develop a Lutheran theological position that can be regarded as reasonable in a society that evidences a considerable weakening of the role of Christianity What are the challenges raised by cultural diversity for a Lutheran theology and ethics Is it possible to develop a Lutheran identity in a multicultural society and is there any fruitful Lutheran contribution to the coexistence of different religious and non religious traditions in the future

Spirit Flowing Like Water Nausikaa Haupt, Olle Kristenson, Michael Nausner, Gregory Ryan, 2025-06-19 What if churches focused less on wanting other Christian traditions to become more like theirs and more on exploring what they might learn from them Might this not only help churches to deepen faith mission and service but also revitalize the ecumenical landscape with new possibilities This is the provocative and inspiring vision presented by Receptive Ecumenism a movement which has crossed denominations and continents engaging church leaders ecumenists scholars and Christians in their everyday lives Spirit Flowing Like Water presents the latest conversations in this field It not only engages leading scholars and practitioners of Receptive Ecumenism between churches but also explores the possibility of learning from difference within a church community Internal Receptive Ecumenism and adapting the approach to a wider ecumenism beyond the visible church Church leaders ecumenists and theologians from five continents have contributed chapters on transforming ecumenism practicing mission in context and broadening the horizon They write not only for those already engaged in ecumenical work but with an invitation to all communities leaders and individuals to take a fresh look at what walking together in Christ means in our polarized world

Exploring a Heritage Anne-Louise Eriksson, Goran Gunner, Niclas Blader, 2012-11-08 From a historical perspective similarities among the Lutheran churches in Denmark Iceland Norway and Sweden are easily understood But these previously homogeneous northern societies built on a Lutheran tradition with close ties between church and state are now considered to be among the most secular in the world as well as being impacted by a growing presence of other religions These changes present a major challenge to the churches concerning how to relate to the state and how to be a folk church The goal of this volume is to explore how Lutheran identity presently shapes churches in the north What are the burning issues engaging these churches at the beginning of the third millennium Are there signs that they are affected by the global emergence of a theology and practice commonly known as Neo Pentecostal or Charismatic What is the situation for women in these churches embedded in societies ranked among the world's most egalitarian In what ways does their Lutheran heritage influence how these churches shape themselves today The point of departure for this study is not a predetermined normative understanding of what a Lutheran church is or should be but the fact that the churches presented here represent what Lutheranism is today in this part of the world Contributors include Anne Louise Eriksson Steinunn Arnthrudur Bjornsdottir Solveig Anna Boasdoottir Niclas Blader Carl Reinhold Brakenhielm Thomas Ekstrand Arnfri ur Gu mundsdottir Goran Gunner Harald Hegstad Hjalti Hugason Roger Jensen Halvard Johannessen Peter Lodberg Benedicte Hammer Pr stholm Karin Sarja Ulrika Svalfors Merete Thomassen Marie Thomsen Marie Vejrup Nielsen and Else Marie Wiberg Pedersen

Lutheran Tradition as Heritage and Tool Niclas Blåder, 2015-09-23 All of the member churches of the Lutheran World Federation LWF are related to Lutheran theology in one way or another However that does not mean they act similarly or draw the same conclusions about any particular issue Rather Lutheran churches around the globe display great diversity This book has its background in a study of five Lutheran churches the ILCO in Costa Rica the IECLB in Brazil the ELCI in Iceland the FLM in Madagascar and the HKBP in Indonesia It addresses the questions of how the Lutheran heritage today is expressed in different churches and what is the role of Lutheran theology in how they handle their respective situations The churches in this study share with other churches the need to handle dilemmas such as the relations between community and pluralism openness and particularity power and servanthood and closeness to culture and being an alternative to culture In doing this they use their culture and history as well as their Lutheran heritage as tools

For the Sake of the World Jonas Idestrom, 2010-01-01 The church exists for the sake of the world The crucial ecclesiological question that this book raises is How How does the church exist for sake of the world One can describe the theological reflections in this book as a form of concrete ecclesiology critical theological reflections on the way the church is manifested in social and historical contexts as a social body By using concepts like body queer human rights practices social process and space the manifestations of the concrete church are critically and constructively analyzed from a theological perspective The arguments in the articles were presented at a symposium in Sweden The purpose of the symposium was not to reach consensus but to stimulate creative and critical discussions concerning theology politics and the identity of the church with a focus on Church of Sweden American theologian William T Cavanaugh who has made himself known as a distinct voice in the discussion of ecclesiology and politics participated and contributes with critical and constructive reflections on the relationship between church and state This book offers important arguments and reflections into the discussion on ecclesiology and politics that has relevance far beyond the Swedish context Contributors JONAS IDESTR M WILLIAM T CAVANAUGH ARNE RASMUSSEN HENRIK WIDMARK G RAN GUNNER NINNA
