

SET 6

HONG KONG DIPLOMA OF SECONDARY EDUCATION EXAMINATION

PRACTICE PAPER ENGLISH LANGUAGE PAPER 1

PART A

Reading Passages

1½ hours
(for both Parts A and B)

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

- (1) There are two parts (A and B) in this paper. All candidates should attempt Part A. In Part B, you should attempt either Part B1 (easier section) OR Part B2 (more difficult section). Candidates attempting Parts A and B2 will be able to attain the full range of levels, while Level 4 will be the highest level attainable for candidates attempting Parts A and B1.
- (2) After the announcement of the start of the examination, you should first write your Candidate Number in the space provided on the appropriate pages of the Part A Question-Answer Book and the Part B Question-Answer Book which you are going to attempt.
- (3) Write your answers in the spaces provided in the Question-Answer Books. Answers written in the margins will not be marked.
- (4) For multiple-choice questions, you are advised to blacken the appropriate circle with a pencil so that wrong marks can be completely erased with a clean rubber. Mark only ONE answer to each question. Two or more answers will score NO MARKS.
- (5) Supplementary answer sheets will be supplied on request. Write your Candidate Number and question number on each sheet.
- (6) No extra time will be given to candidates for filling in the question number boxes after the 'Time is up' announcement.
- (7) The two Question-Answer Books you have attempted (one for Part A and one for Part B) will be collected together at the end of the examination.
- (8) The unused Question-Answer Book for Part B will be collected separately at the end of the examination. This will not be marked. Do not write any answers in it.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PART A

Attempt ALL questions in Part A. Each question carries ONE mark unless otherwise stated.

Not to be taken away before the end of the examination session

Le Cep Set Paper 2013:

The Political Economy of Special Economic Zones Lotta Moberg, 2017-03-16 Special Economic Zones SEZs have become a popular development policy throughout the world over the last half a century. These zones form designated areas where governments offer businesses lower taxes, tariffs, and often lighter regulations. Generally, SEZs aim to attract investments and raise a country's export and employment rates, but although success stories are often cited, there are numerous failed projects that have instead become burdens for their host countries. This book examines SEZs from a political economy perspective, both to dissect the incentives of governments, zone developers, and exporters, and to uncover both the hidden costs and untapped potential of zone policies. Costs include misallocated resources, the encouragement of rent seeking, and distraction of policy makers from more effective reforms. However, the zones also have several unappreciated benefits. They can change the politics of a country by generating a transition from a system of rent seeking to one of liberalized open markets. In revealing the hidden promise of SEZs, this book shows how the SEZ model of development can succeed in the future. Applying frameworks from various schools of political economy, this volume places SEZs in the context of their mixed past and promising future. It is essential reading for anyone with an interest in international economic development, economics, and political economy, including practitioners and consultants of SEZ policies. OECD Reviews of School

Resources: Uruguay 2016 Santiago Paulo, Ávalos Beatrice, Burns Tracey, Morduchowicz Alejandro, Radinger Thomas, 2016-11-22 The effective use of school resources is a policy priority across OECD countries. The OECD Reviews of School Resources explore how resources can be governed, distributed, utilised, and managed to improve the quality, equity, and efficiency of school education. China's Economy Iris Claus, Les Oxley, 2014-12-23 This collection of critical surveys provides readers with a range of up-to-date work from leading scholars in the area, writing on some of the key issues facing China as they survey the present and future challenges of the Chinese economy. Nine papers provide detailed discussion on key aspects of the past, present, and future of the Chinese economy. Leaders in their relevant fields of scholarship tackle some of the critical issues facing China. Contributors identify common themes, including the household registration system, urbanization, demographic transition, inequality, and the sustainability of economic growth. Articles provide a critical review of the literature and discuss policy implications and areas for future research. The Shipley Collection of Scientific Papers, 1833

Project on Nuclear Issues Sarah Minot, 2016-06-10 This annual volume includes papers from the 2015 CSIS Project on Nuclear Issues Capstone Conference. Spanning a wide range of technical and policy issues, the papers further discussion in their respective areas and contribute to the training of the greater nuclear community. Economic Change and Wellbeing Fabio D'Orlando, Francesco Ferrante, Albertina Oliverio, 2021-09-01 Technological progress and globalization have generated indisputable benefits, but also relevant costs, such as growing economic inequality, economic fluctuations, and financial instability. Mainstream economics has usually considered these costs as temporary, evenly distributed, and more than compensated by the gains of the phases of economic expansion In this book which focuses mainly though not only on the labor market the authors contend that the major costs of the intensified process of creative destruction through which economic change proceeded have been ignored and the benefits overrated thus incorrectly estimating the net impact of economic growth on subjective wellbeing The book argues that the positive consequences of economic change and globalization may not compensate for the negatives because psychological losses are felt more strongly than gains due to loss aversion and the costs are unequally distributed those on low incomes disproportionately suffer more The result is an overall reduction in wellbeing and therefore appropriate policies are necessary to allow more people to enjoy the benefits of technological progress without suffering the costs The authors develop a comprehensive framework in which the socio psychological context and educational level of a community determine the most suitable policies both for the short and for the long run The book makes an invaluable contribution to the literature on economic growth and development labor economics the economics of wellbeing and applications of behavioral economics The readers that may be interested in this book are economists and other social scientists but also general readers since the analysis is maintained simple and accessible University teachers can use the book for courses on economic growth and development on labor economics on the economics of human capital on the economics of wellbeing and on applications of behavioral economics
