Cinema

of Marguerite Duras Michelle Royer, 2019-05-03 The writer Marguerite Duras was a key figure in post war French cinema pioneering innovations such as the disjunction of film and image and the primacy given to voices silence and music Her multisensorial approach opened up new spaces for the female experience to be expressed Although she worked with some of the best French visual technicians and musicians of her time critiques have often neglected the visual and sonic aesthetics of her films and their effects on spectators Drawing on theories of embodiment and spectatorship this book analyses the tactility and multisensoriality of Duras films and how they relate to her female centred perspective The Crimes of Marguerite Duras

Anne Brancky, 2020-07-09 One of the most celebrated authors of twentieth century France Marguerite Duras loved crime Indeed criminal faits divers from the newspaper represented a key element in her literary project Sensational news stories made their way into her novels plays and screenplays inspired numerous journalistic pieces and media interventions and even informed the way that she discussed her life and work in the press The Crimes of Marguerite Duras offers an innovative framework for analyzing Duras s literary works and journalism as they relate to the mass media and broader cultural debates Anne Brancky reveals how Duras s predilection for provocatively blurring the line between truth and fiction on various media platforms helped make her a best selling author and a public intellectual ahead of her time Exploring the movement between serious literature and public scandal this readable book affirms literature s abiding role in political debate and the public sphere New York Nouveau

Sara Kippur, 2025-08-12 Postwar French writers were at the vanguard of global literary innovation from the experimental minimalism of the Nouveau Roman to the literary games of the OuLiPo but less often appreciated is the extent to which they worked closely with US editors and translators published actively with American presses and often theorized transatlantic connections within their work In this exciting new work Sara Kippur proposes a new French literary history that traces the deep connections between postwar literary experimentalism and the New York publishing industry compellingly arguing that US based editors publishers producers professors and translators crucially intervened to shape French literature While Kippur attends closely to well known writers such as Marguerite Duras Samuel Beckett Eug ne Ionesco Georges Perec and Alain Robbe Grillet she also amplifies the voices of those who have been less visible though no less relevant including women whose contributions have not received proper credit but who helped to foster a sense of new possibilities for twentieth century French writing With these untold histories stitched together in this book through new archival discoveries from special collections and personal archives on both sides of the Atlantic Kippur begins to dismantle rigid notions of canonicity authorship and national literature C??line Sciamma

Emma Wilson, 2021-09-09 C line Sciamma is the most visible and important feminist and lesbian director in contemporary international filmmaking Her fourth feature Portrait of a Lady on Fire competed for the Palme d Or at Cannes in 2019 and intervened directly in debates about the female gaze sexuality and specifically how to look at and make a portrait of young women In her approach to female non binary and queer identities she has focused on the need for agency binding this imperative into her aesthetic choices and modes of filmmaking This is the first book length study of Sciamma s films focusing on the relationship of her work to the visual arts and exploring the relevance of feminist theory to her unique perspective
