Le guide de la moto 2009 Bertrand Gahel, 2009      Epasa Moto , 2014-06-02      Mobility, Transnationalism and Contemporary African Societies Tilo Grätz, 2010-01-08 The book is meant to shed new light on migratory processes pertinent to Sub Saharan Africa It starts out from the position that contemporary migratory movements can only be assessed by employing an appropriate theoretical framework which helps with conceptualising both localised strategies of migrants i e their modes of adaptation economic and social integration into host societies and the way they maintain relationships back home across places and nations i e translocal aspects of their mobility in terms of networking communication or economic as well as cultural transfers It this respect the book contributes to the current debate on processes and effects of worldwide mobility addressing causes and effects and the various aspects of a culture of migration relevant for the African continent Additionally the book tries to go beyond the usual structural discussions and reflections on mobility and migration by looking at actual migrant practices their social creativity the employment of flexible responses to often restrictive governmental policies Finally the volume also discusses the often neglected issue of involuntary immobility as well as the significance of borders in both limiting mobility and in creating new borderline strategies to employ a notion by Ines Kohl with regard to migrants transnational strategies The book addresses a wide readership in Human Sciences especially from African Studies Anthropology Sociology Geography and Political Sciences      Material Culture Review , 2009      Geographical Places in Transportation Jean-Baptiste Fretigny, 2025-06-17 In the entanglement of practices protagonists techniques and infrastructures that enable mobility transportation places play a crucial role While transportation is often approached through the prism of networks Geographical Places in Transportation invites us to shift our focus toward the places that link transportation and facilitate the movements of people objects and materials Through the myriad activities that unfold there transportation places play an active role in the interdependencies that shape our daily lives This book looks at transportation production and experience sites as places processes where a considerable proportion of society s challenges and the habitability of territories are at stake ecological transition social inequalities roles of minorities and living beings access to employment and other resources role of atmospheres and ambiances commercial strategies and security concerns expansion of digital capitalism and relations with both the near and the distant      Livres hebdo , 2010-03      Livres de France , 2010 Includes 1982 1995 Les Livres du mois also published separately      Le Bulletin du livre , 1979      Le guide de la moto 2009 Bertrand Gahel, 2002      Le Guide de la presse , 1990      Bibliographie du Québec , 1979      Repère , 2009

West/Border/Road Katherine Ann Roberts, 2018-04-18 The North American entertainment industry is rapidly consolidating and new modes of technological delivery challenge Canadian content regulations An understanding of how Canadian culture negotiates its rapport with American genres has never been more timely West Border Road offers an interdisciplinary analysis of contemporary Canadian manifestations of three American genres the western the border and the road It situates close readings of literary film and television narratives from both English Canada and Quebec within a larger context of Canadian generic borrowing and innovation Katherine Ann Roberts calls upon canonical works in Canadian studies theories of genre and a wide range of scholarship from border studies cultural studies and film studies to examine how genre is appropriated and sometimes reworked and how these cultural narratives engage with discourses of contemporary Canadian nationhood The author elucidates Guy Vanderhaeghe s rewriting of the codes of the historical western to include the trauma of Aboriginal peoples Aritha van Herk s playful spoof on American western iconography the politics and perils of the representation of the Canada US border in CBC produced crime television and how the road genre inspires and constrains the Qu b cois and Canadian road movie A reminder of the power and limitations of American genres West Border Road provides a nuanced perspective on Canadian engagement with cultural forms that may be imported but never foreign
