Leap Test Administrator Manual

Karin Nielsen-Saines

Leap Test Administrator Manual:

High Stakes Dale D. Johnson, Bonnie Johnson, 2006 High Stakes is a critical ethnography of an underfunded public elementary school in this era of accountability and high stakes testing The book was written during the year the authors served as third and fourth grade teachers and it juxtaposes the experiences of mostly minority children of poverty and their teachers with an examination of high stakes testing policies and the loss of a comprehensive education to political dictates

State Assessment Policy and Practice for English Language Learners Charlene Rivera, Eric Collum, 2014-05-12 State Assessment Policy and Practice for English Language Learners presents three significant studies each examining a different aspect of states strategies for including English language learners in state assessments an Analysis of State Assessment Policies Regarding Accommodations for English Language Learners a Survey and Description of Test Translation Practices and an Examination of State Practices for Reporting Participation and Performance of English Language Learners in State Assessments With the rise in population of English language learners and the subsequent stepped up legislative focus on this student population over the past decade states have been challenged to include English language learners in state assessment programs Until now the little data available on states policies and practices for meeting this challenge has been embedded in various reports and professional journals and scattered across the Internet This volume offers for the first time a focused examination of states assessment policies and practices regarding English language learners The three studies were supported by OELA the U S Department of Education s Office of English Language Acquisition Language Enhancement and Academic Achievement for Limited English Proficient Students State Assessment Policy and Practice for English Language Learners is of interest to researchers and professionals involved with the assessment of English language learners state and district level policy makers and academics teacher educators and graduate students in a number of fields including educational and psychological assessment testing and measurement bilingual education English as a second language and second language acquisition

Alternatives to Privatizing Public Education and Curriculum Daniel Ness, Stephen J. Farenga, 2017-03-16 Through conversations in honor of Dale D Johnson this book takes a critical view of the monoculture in curriculum and policy that has developed in education with the increase of federal funding and privatization of services for public education and examines the shift from public interest and control to private and corporate shareholder hegemony Most states educational responsibilities assessment of constituents curriculum development and instructional protocols are increasingly being outsourced to private enterprises in an effort to reduce state budgets These enterprises have been given wide access to state resources such as public data from state sanctioned testing results field testing rights to public schools and financial assistance Chapter authors challenge this paradigm as well as the model that has set growing premiums on accountability and performance measures Connecting common impact between the standards movement and the privatization of education this book lays bare the repercussions of high stakes accountability coupled with increasing
