Lucy Calkins Kindergarten:

Creating Schools That Heal Lesley Koplow, 2015 Lesley Koplow's well-examined truths uncover an image of intimacy between teacher and child sorely needed in our schools. Her emotionally responsive teacher is the pivot for a classroom community that visibly supports and honors its members in the great variety of their lives. What stands in the way is the question Ms. Koplow courageously answers. Vivian Gussin Paley, author of In Mrs. Tulley's Room: A Childcare Portrait. In a world where children are beset by violence and stress, Lesley Koplow provides educators with clear, level-headed advice on how to construct therapeutic learning environments for all children. This is a book about integrating preventive mental health practice into public schools, preschool through grade 5. Koplow, a psychotherapist, discusses the mandate for violence prevention and offers an intervention framework for teachers, administrators, and school-based clinicians who want to improve the emotional climate in their school. This important and timely volume helps educators read the signs of distress or problematic social-emotional development as they are likely to manifest themselves in the school setting. Introduces a practice model that calls for strengthened teacher-child connections. Addresses in separate chapters the roles of the teacher, principal, and school-based clinician providing guidance and effective strategies for each. Demonstrates that interventions can be done effectively by existing school personnel. Describes a project to facilitate teacher gathering of psycho-social history that can be used to inform constructive curricular practice. Poses compelling questions for policymakers including concerns about the effect that the current focus on standards and test scores is having on the emotional tone of schools. Includes a chapter addressing what we've learned from the recent tragic events of September 11th in New York City. A Field Guide to the Classroom Library Lucy Calkins, 2002 Provides comprehensive and accessible leveled lists and guides for 1,200 children's trade books for kindergarten through 6th grade to help teachers build classroom libraries. Learning to Write and Loving It! Preschool-Kindergarten Miriam P. Trehearne, 2011-08-17 Learning to Write and Loving It equips teachers of young children with practical strategies, assessment tools, and motivating writing activities that are based on current research and proven practice and are easily applicable to all kinds of learning environments. Included are many authentic writing samples and photos to illustrate effective developmentally appropriate instructional methods, mini-lessons, and activities. Sought-after author and speaker Miriam P. Trehearne demonstrates how to scaffold play and literacy learning and how to easily link assessment to instruction. Key features differentiate using effective instructional approaches for teaching writing and supporting inquiry and play, assess and document student writing seamlessly throughout the day, motivate and engage children in writing fiction, narrative, nonfiction, poetry, and song, enjoy learning with a powerful collection of vignettes from real classrooms, and use teacher-friendly guidelines for effectively integrating technology and selecting software for young children. A companion CD offers modifiable reproducible observation checklists, assessments, and projects for parents to do with their young children. Learn how to successfully scaffold writing and in the process foster cross-curricular skills in science social studies and math Research shows that writing provides a strong foundation for literacy development Further writing helps children express themselves clarify their thinking communicate ideas and integrate new information into their knowledge base Publisher Inside the Classroom Bobbi Fisher,1996 Kindergarten and first grade have many similarities as far as classroom management organization and materials children are engaged in writing reading literature social studies and science Although each grade is unique many of the concepts and teaching strategies appropriate to one can easily be applied to the other Inside the Classroom is a collection of articles by Bobbi Fisher many of which first appeared in Teaching Pre K 8 Fisher who has taught both kindergarten and first grade is often asked by teachers where they can find her articles Inside the Classroom is the answer Here elementary teachers will learn how to set up a classroom environmental conducive to learning how to create a positive classroom community how to use reading and writing throughout the curriculum how to assist emergent and initial readers answers to spelling questions and how to conduct a visitors day Catching Readers Before They Fall Pat Johnson,Katie Keier,2010 Using examples from both adults and children the authors explain and describe the complex integrated network of strategies that takes place in the minds of proficient readers strategies that struggling readers have to learn in order to construct their own reading processes The examples and scenarios of teacher student interactions in this book provide a sense of how it looks and what it sounds like to teach strategic actions to struggling readers book cover Observation and Participation in Early Childhood Settings Jean Billman,Janice A. Sherman,2003 This text was written to give students experience in using effective methods for observing young children s development ages 0 8 and documenting their observations Designed to guide students participation with children of different age groups in a variety of early childhood settings the text encourages students to interact with children as they learn more about development by carrying out the activities outlined in each chapter This text models the educational approaches that professionals advocate for early childhood classrooms observational learning active learning guided discovery choice mini lessons and cooperative learning These approaches are incorporated into this text through concise overviews and numerous activities related to early childhood development and education Classroom Based Assessment Bonnie Campbell Hill,Cynthia Ruptic,Lisa Norwick,1998 Never Too Early to Write Madeline Johnson,1999 Offers advice to teachers on how to set up writing workshops in kindergarten and first grade classrooms describing ten writing workshop strategies and featuring tips on how to include parents in the writing program Units of Study for Teaching Reading ,2015 Children's Play, Pretense, and Story Susan Douglas,Lesley Stirling,2015-12-21 At the heart of this volume is the recognition that children s engagement with play and story are intrinsically and intricately linked The contributing authors share a passionate interest in the development and well being of children in particular through their use of imagination and adaptation of the everyday into play and stories Following these principles the volume explores the connections between play story and pretense with regard to many cultural and contextual factors that influence the way these elements vary in children s lives In a departure from earlier collections on play and story the authors take a particular focus on normative as compared with atypical development This collection begins with an approach to understanding the developmental relationship between play and story which recognizes their similarities while acknowledging their differences Much of the collection addresses pretend play and story in children with autism spectrum disorder an understudied but important group for consideration as these dimensions of their lives and development have often been considered problematic The volume also includes sections on play and story in classroom settings and play and story across cultures including non English speaking environments such as Israel Romania China and Mexico It concludes with a discussion of how play differs across sociocultural and economic contexts making a unifying claim for the importance of play in children s lives but also calling for an understanding of what play means to very different groups of children

The Year-book of Education for ... Henry Kiddle, Alexander Jacob Schem, 1878

Storytelling in Early Childhood Teresa Cremin, Rosie Flewitt, Ben Mardell, Joan Swann, 2016-12-08

Storytelling in Early Childhood is a captivating book which explores the multiple dimensions of storytelling and story acting and shows how they enrich language and literacy learning in the early years Foregrounding the power of children s own stories in the early and primary years it provides evidence that storytelling and story acting a pedagogic approach first developed by Vivian Gussin Paley affords rich opportunities to foster learning within a play based and language rich curriculum The book explores a number of themes and topics including the role of imaginary play and its dynamic relationship to narrative how socially situated symbolic actions enrich the emotional cognitive and social development of children how the interrelated practices of storytelling and dramatisation enhance language and literacy learning and contribute to an inclusive classroom culture the challenges practitioners face in aligning their understanding of child literacy and learning with a narrow mandated curriculum which focuses on measurable outcomes Driven by an international approach and based on new empirical studies this volume further advances the field offering new theoretical and practical analyses of storytelling and story acting from complementary disciplinary perspectives This book is a potent and engaging read for anyone intrigued by Paley s storytelling and story acting curriculum as well as those practitioners and students with a vested interest in early years literacy and language learning With contributions from Vivian Gussin Paley Patricia Patsy Cooper Dorothy Faulkner Natalia Kucirkova Gillian Dowley McNamee and Ageliki Nicolopoulou
