 Lappo,2014 With the worlds population expected to reach 8 2 billion people by 2030 and with 842 million people estimated as having been undernourished in the period 201113 food supply will present a growing challenge in the next two decades With increases in income along with demographic changes related to family size population ageing and urbanization and consumer trends such as concerns for healthy eating and sustainable production there will be great shifts in demand and major changes in the composition of demand This will in turn have an impact on food supply which will need to both increase and become more efficient if it is to grow within the constraints presented by the availability of natural resources and existing technology This publication presents projections of future food supply up to 2030 building on existing analyses but also providing more economic perspectives on the future evolution of food production Michigan Postsecondary around In this insightful and provocative book Frans Rautenbach proposes a complete overhaul of policy thinking and provides fresh arguments that effectively address South Africa s unemployment race problems and lack of education Rautenbach examines the fundamental problem of rent seeking to which he proposes two antidotes the free market and decentralisation of government Along the way he tackles holy cows such as affirmative action trade unions labour law and welfare payments He also addresses contentious topics such as racism white privilege political correctness state funding of higher education and mounting evidence that trade unions substantially suppress employment growth Written by a labour lawyer with a proven track record in a range of policy issues South Africa Can Work speaks effectively to a cross section of readers of all disciplines and brings sorely needed good news
