Crossover Stars in the Hindi Film Industry Dina Khdair, 2020-05-11 This book explores the cultural politics of Pakistani crossover stardom in the Hindi film industry as a process of both assimilation and Otherness. Analysing the career profiles of three crossover performers Ali Zafar, Fawad Khan and Mahira Khan as a relevant case study, it unites critical globalization studies with soft power theory in exploring the potential of popular culture in conflict resolution. The book studies the representation and reception of these celebrities while discussing themes such as the meaning of being a Pakistani star in India and the consequent identity politics that come into play. As the first comprehensive study of Pakistani crossover stardom, it captures intersections between political economy, cultural representation and nationalist discourse at the same time, reflecting on larger questions of identity and belonging in an age of globalization. Crossover Stars in the Hindi Film Industry will be indispensable to researchers of film studies, media and cultural studies, popular culture and performance, peace and area studies and South Asian studies. It will also be of interest to enthusiasts of Indian cinematic history.

The Nation on Screen Enric Castelló, Alexander Dhoest, Hugh O'Donnell, 2009

oeBut we can still rise now runs a line of Scotland TM s unofficial national anthem Flower of Scotland oeand be the nation again who defeated the English King Edward II in 1314 at the Battle of Bannockburn These short lines tell us much about the concept of the nation Firstly the pronoun of the nation is oe we Secondly nationhood remains aspirational for some while it is entirely taken for granted for others Thirdly nations often trace their origins back to an implausibly dim and distant past Finally it points to the fundamentally discursive nature of the nation the nation appears not as something which simply is but as something which can be called into existence through talk official documents official and unofficial national anthems ceremonies and parades monuments and statuary press coverage and increasingly television This book which arose out of a conference held in Tarragona in 2007 focuses on the complex discourses of the nation to be found in the television systems of twelve different countries examining how these circulate in fiction in news and documentary including re enactment formats and in entertainment programmes adverts and the coverage of large scale sporting events The nation which emerges is everywhere and nowhere talked about endlessly but never finally grasped repeatedly staged and re enacted but lacking a foundational script In short it is a site of struggle The stakes are high since the nation when mobilised is a force to be reckoned with and the on going attempts to define it are many varied and often highly creative This book details many such events from the high drama of war reporting to the self mocking irony of ten second commercial spots
