KENNETH If one has to get their heart broken I highly recommend it be just before inheriting some far off property from an unknown relative It's convenient for putting distance between oneself and all that unpleasantness I hardly knew what to expect from the sprawling Yorkshire estate I suddenly found myself in possession of All I know is the magic of the place soothed all my troubles I was instantly enchanted Among everything competing for my attention nothing captivated me more than a simple journal I found It chronicled the days of a man named Eustace a kindred spirit in whose lonely words I found companionship His secret yearnings and desires a mirror to my own But when I connected the journal to the mysterious black wolf that shared my estate perhaps I should have let caution take precedence over curiosity Instead I committed myself to unraveling this mystery But the same love that could free him from his terrible curse could also forever doom me to my own EUSTACE I thought I'd long ago resigned myself to my fate That was before Kenneth For the first time in decades I find myself longing to unburden myself to another human soul rather than just empty pages Looking forward to that rare night I walk on two legs rather than raging at it for being a cruel taunt Until I'm reminded that longing for more is what led to this cursed existence in the first place It's too late for me but I can still save Kenneth If I can only find the words to make him forget about me and be gone from this terrible place forever If for once I can rise above my own selfish desires and swallow the words I long to say Speak only the ones he needs to hear To do so might crush the last of my spirit Extinguish the last fitful embers of a hope I'd only just rekindled But for him I'll do what I have to Whatever it takes Passion of the Werewolf
