Memorandum Of Creative Arts November 201:

Federalizing the Muse Donna M. Binkiewicz, 2005-12-15 The National Endowment for the Arts is often accused of embodying a liberal agenda within the American government In Federalizing the Muse Donna Binkiewicz assesses the leadership and goals of Presidents Kennedy through Carter as well as Congress and the National Council on the Arts drawing a picture of the major players who created national arts policy Using presidential papers NEA and National Archives materials and numerous interviews with policy makers Binkiewicz refutes persisting beliefs in arts funding as part of a liberal agenda by arguing that the NEA's origins in the Cold War era colored arts policy with a distinctly moderate undertone Binkiewicz's study of visual arts grants reveals that NEA officials promoted a modernist abstract aesthetic specifically because they believed such a style would best showcase American achievement and freedom This initially led them to neglect many contemporary art forms they feared could be perceived as politically problematic such as pop feminist and ethnic arts The agency was not able to balance its funding across a variety of art forms before facing serious budget cutbacks Binkiewicz's analysis brings important historical perspective to the perennial debates about American art policy and sheds light on provocative political and cultural issues in postwar America Sean Lemass Bryce Evans, 2011-08-17 Sean Lemass enjoys unrivalled acclaim as the Architect of Modern Ireland Yet there remain great gaps in our knowledge of this mythic figure and his golden age Up to now Lemass a colossus of twentieth century Irish history was airbrushed to fit a narrative of national progress Today this narrative is undergoing an agonising reappraisal This groundbreaking study reveals the man behind the myth and asks questions previously skirted around What emerges is an authoritarian cunning workaholic patriot a shrewd political tactician whose impatience lay not just with the old Ireland but with democracy itself This is the untold story of a great man and his lasting impact on a nation's imagination Developing Theatre in the Global South Nic Leonhardt, Christopher B. Balme, 2024-04-09 Drawing on new research from the ERC project Developing Theatre this collection presents innovative institutional approaches to the theatre historiography of the Global South since 1945 Covering perspectives from Africa Asia the Middle East and Latin America as well as Eastern Europe the chapters explore how US philanthropy international organisations and pan African festivals all contributed to the globalisation and institutionalisation of the performing arts in the Global South During the Cultural Cold War the Global North intervened in and promoted forms of cultural infrastructure that were deemed adaptable to any environment This form of technopolitics impacted the construction of national theatres the introduction of new pedagogical tools and the invention of the workshop as a format The networks of experts responsible for this foreground seminal figures both celebrated Augusto Boal Efua Sutherland but also lesser known Albert Botbol Severino Montano Metin And who contributed to the worldwide theatrical epistemic community of the postwar years Developing Theatre in the Global South investigates the institutional factors that led to the emergence of professional theatre in the postwar period throughout the decolonising world The book's institutional and transnational approach enables theatre studies to overcome its still strong national and local focus on plays and productions and connect it to current discourses in transnational and global history

Drawing on America's Past, 2002 This book presents watercolor renderings along with a selection of the artifacts in the Index of American Design a visual archive of decorative folk and popular arts made in America from the colonial period to about 1900 Three essays explore the history operation and ambitions of the Index of American Design examine folk art collecting in America during the early decades of the twentieth century and consider the Index's role in the search for a national cultural identity in the early twentieth century United States

Art, Ideology, and Economics in Nazi Germany Alan E. Steinweis, 2017-11-01 From 1933 to 1945 the Reich Chamber of Culture exercised a profound influence over hundreds of thousands of German artists and entertainers Alan Steinweis focuses on the fields of music theater and the visual arts in this first major study of Nazi cultural administration examining a complex pattern of interaction among leading Nazi figures German cultural functionaries ordinary artists and consumers of culture Steinweis gives special attention to Nazi efforts to purge the arts of Jews and other so called undesirables Steinweis describes the political professional and economic environment in which German artists were compelled to function and explains the structure of decision making thus showing in whose interest cultural policies were formulated He discusses such issues as insurance minimum wage statutes and certification guidelines all of which were matters of high priority to the art professions before 1933 as well as after the Nazi seizure of power By elucidating the economic and professional context of cultural life Steinweis helps to explain the widespread acquiescence of German artists to artistic censorship and racial purification His work also sheds new light on the purge of Jews from German cultural life

Representing Jazz Krin Gabbard, 1995 Traditional jazz studies have tended to see jazz in purely musical terms as a series of changes in rhythm tonality and harmony or as a parade of great players But jazz has also entered the cultural mix through its significant impact on novelists filmmakers dancers painters biographers and photographers Representing Jazz explores the other history of jazz created by these artists a history that tells us as much about the meaning of the music as do the many books that narrate the lives of musicians or describe their recordings Krin Gabbard has gathered essays by distinguished writers from a variety of fields They provide engaging analyses of films such as Round Midnight Bird Mo Better Blues Cabin in the Sky and Jammin the Blues the writings of Eudora Welty and Dorothy Baker the careers of the great lindy hoppers of the 1930s and 1940s Mura Dehn s extraordinary documentary on jazz dance the jazz photography of William Claxton painters of the New York School the traditions of jazz autobiography and the art of vocalese The contributors to this volume assess the influence of extramusical sources on our knowledge of jazz and suggest that the living contexts of the music must be considered if a more sophisticated jazz scholarship is ever to evolve Transcending the familiar patterns of jazz history and criticism Representing Jazz looks at how the music actually has been heard and felt at different levels of American culture With its companion anthology Jazz Among the Discourses this volume will enrich and transform the literature of jazz studies Its provocative essays will interest both aficionados and potential jazz fans Contributors Karen Backstein Leland H Chambers Robert P Crease Krin Gabbard Frederick Garber Barry K Grant Mona Hadler Christopher Harlos Michael Jarrett Adam Knee Arthur Knight James Naremore The Educational Screen ,1940
