Appointing Judges in an Age of Judicial Power Peter H. Russell, Kate Malleson, 2006-01-01 The main aim of this volume is to analyse common issues arising from increasing judicial power in the context of different political and legal systems including those in North America Africa Europe Australia and Asia Science Education in Context Richard K. Coll, Neil Taylor, 2019-02-18 This book presents an international perspective of the influence of educational context on science education The focus is on the interactions between curriculum development and implementation particularly in non Western and non English speaking contexts i e outside the UK USA Australia NZ etc An important and distinguishing feature of the book is that it draws upon the experiences and research from local experts from an extremely diverse cohort across the world 26 countries in total The book addresses topics such as curriculum development research or evaluation of an implemented curriculum discussion of pressures driving curriculum reform or implementation of new curricula e g technology or environmental education the influence of political cultural societal or religious mores on education governmental or ministerial drives for curriculum reform economic or other pressures driving curriculum reform the influence of external assessment regimes on curriculum and so on The Constitution at Work Manfred O. Hinz, S. K. Amoo, Dawid Hercules Van Wyk, 2003 The book contains papers which were presented at a conference held from 11 to 13 September 2000 Some of the topics covered includes Executive power Traditional Authorities International environment Judiciary Citizenship Press Freedom Land HIV AIDS Gender and Education Annual Report for the Year Ending ... Namibia. Ministry of Education and Culture, 1994 Human Rights and the Judicialisation of African Politics Peter Brett, 2018-09-18 Human Rights and the Judicialisation of African Politics shows readers how central questions in African politics have entered courtrooms over the last three decades and provides the first transnational explanation for this development The book begins with three conditions that have made judicialisation possible in Africa as a whole new corporate rights norms including the expansion of indigenous rights the proliferation of new avenues for legal proceedings and the development of new support structures enabling litigation It then studies the effects of these changes based on fieldwork in three Southern African countries Zimbabwe Namibia and Botswana Examining three recent court cases involving international law international courts and transnational NGOs it looks beyond some of international relations established models to explain when and why and legal rights can be clarified This text will be of key interest to scholars and students of African politics and human rights and more broadly to international relations and international law and justice Annual Report National Programme of Action for the Children of Namibia, 1994 International Aerospace Abstracts , 1989 Bibliographic Guide to Business and Economics New York Public Library.  C. Saunders,1983 Re-Viewing Resistance in Namibian History Silvester, Jeremy,2015-07-13 Re Viewing Resistance in Namibian History brings together the work of experienced academics and a new wave of young Namibian historians architects of the past who are working on a range of public history and heritage projects from late nineteenth century resistance to the use of songs from the role of gender in SWAPO s camps to memorialisation and from international solidarity to aspects of the history of Kavango and Caprivi In a culturally and politically diverse democracy such as Namibia there are bound to be different perspectives on the past and history will be as plural as the history tellers The chapters in this book reflect this diversity and combine to create a remarkable collection of divergent voices providing alternative perspectives on the past Re Viewing Resistance in Namibian History writes forgotten people into history provides a reading of the past that reflects the tensions and competing identities that pervaded the struggle and deals with heritage that hurts History
