The Fabric of Peace in Africa Pamela Aall, Chester A. Crocker, 2017-06-05 Africa has experienced dozens of conflicts over a variety of issues during the past two decades Responding to these conflicts requires concerted action to manage the crises the violence the political discord and the humanitarian consequences of prolonged fighting It is also necessary to address the long term social and economic impacts of conflict to rebuild communities societies and states that have been torn apart To accomplish this requires the involvement of institutions and groups rarely considered in formal official African conflict management activities schools universities religious institutions media commercial enterprises legal institutions civil society groups youth women and migrants These groups and organizations have an important role to play in building a sense of identity fairness shared norms and cohesion between state and society all critical components of the fabric of peace and security in Africa This volume brings together leading experts from Africa Europe and North America to examine these critical social institutions and groups and consider how they can either improve or impede peaceful conflict resolution The overarching questions that are explored by the authors are What constitutes social cohesion and resilience in the face of conflict What are the threats to cohesion and resilience And how can the positive elements be fostered and by whom The second of two volumes on African conflict management capacity by the editors The Fabric of Peace in Africa Looking beyond the State opens new doors of understanding for students scholars and practitioners focused on strengthening peace in Africa the first volume Minding the Gap African Conflict Management in a Time of change focused on the role of mediation and peacekeeping in managing violence and political crises

The Education Alibi Elizabeth Cooper, Erdmute Alber, Wandia Njoya, 2025-10-22 Education is generally promoted as the key to the future of Africa in global development discourses about the continent Education's official story in Africa continues to be one of innocence and public good yet since colonial times education has constituted an area of intense contestation The Education Alibi asks if it is possible that while claiming to be doing one thing education has also been doing another in African communities The concept of the alibi shines an interrogative light on institutions and actors use of education to divert scrutiny from other effects Through ethnographic research and critical analysis across the continent this volume focuses on people's lived experiences to demonstrate how contemporary education systems in fact deepen economic racialized gendered urban rural linguistic religious and other intranational and international inequalities

Shakespeare beyond English Susan Bennett, Christie Carson, 2013-08-29 Tackling vital issues of politics identity and experience in performance this book asks what Shakespeare's plays mean when extended beyond the English language From April to June 2012 the Globe to Globe Festival offered the unprecedented opportunity to see all of Shakespeare's plays performed in many different world languages Thirty eight productions from around the globe were presented in six weeks as part of the World Shakespeare Festival which formed a cornerstone of the Cultural Olympics This book provides the only complete critical record of that event drawing together an internationally renowned group of scholars of Shakespeare and world theatre with a selection of the UK's most celebrated Shakespearean actors Featuring a foreword by Artistic Director Dominic Dromgoole and an interview with the Festival Director Tom Bird this volume highlights the energy and dedication that was necessary to mount this extraordinary cultural experiment

Burning Ambition Elizabeth Cooper, 2022-07-19 Burning Ambition explores how young people learn to understand and influence the workings of power and justice in their society Since 2008 hundreds of secondary schools across Kenya have been targeted with fire by their students Through an in depth study of Kenyan secondary students use of arson Elizabeth Cooper asks why With insightful ethnographic analysis she shows that these young students deploy arson as moral punishment for perceived injustices and arson proves an effective tactic in their politics from below Drawing from years of research and a rich array of sources Cooper accounts for how school fires stoke a national conversation about the limited means for ordinary Kenyans and especially youth to peacefully influence the governance of their own lives Further Cooper argues that Kenyan students actions challenge the existing complacency with the globalized agenda of education for all demonstrating that submissive despondency is not the only possible response to the failed promises of education to transform material and social inequalities
