Mao's Generals Remember Korea Xiaobing Li, Allan Reed Millett, Bin Yu, 2001 Fifty years after the Korean conflict what is a forgotten war for some Americans is an aching memory for China With over a million casualties out of the three million soldiers sent into battle that war looms as large for the People's Republic of China PRC barely a year old when North Korea invaded the South as World War II does for most other countries It was the first international war fought by the Chinese Communist regime to halt counterrevolution it was also a war that the Chinese fully expected to win by virtue of not only superiority of numbers but also their soldiers superior political quality This book presents a mosaic of memoirs by key Chinese military commanders from that war drawing not only on their personal papers but also on still classified archives and on Chinese language sources unavailable in English It offers an uncensored behind the scenes story of the Communist campaign from the decision to intervene through the truce negotiations that discloses new information on such facets of the war as strategy and tactics use of propaganda and mobilization of the Chinese population It also reveals the generals concerns about the possible use of nuclear force and the alleged use of biological and chemical weapons by the United States The book contains a wealth of new materials on the Chinese intervention including combat operations logistics political control field command and communications Among those whose recollections are recorded then acting Chief of Staff Nie Rongzhen reveals how party leadership decided on intervention Commander in Chief Peng Dehuai provides personal accounts of major battles and communications with Mao and General Yang Dezhi shares secrets of Chinese military strategy and tactics discussing how the army orchestrated each battle to contend with the better equipped UN forces The volume also features an updated short history of the PRC s conduct of the war based on Chinese sources plus rare photos from Chinese archives that put readers behind the lines from the Chinese side Mao s Generals Remember Korea demonstrates that the PRC continues to draw military diplomatic and strategic lessons from the war it fought fifty years ago with the world s most powerful military force It offers valuable insight into the Chinese way of war and the military mind of Mao that will be a rich resource for Asian and military scholars

The Korean War in Retrospect Daniel J. Meador, 1998-06-04 The Korean War in Retrospect provides a compilation of presentations from a conference sponsored by the Center for National Security Law and the John Bassett Moore Society at the University of Virginia Law School to celebrate the fortieth anniversary of the outbreak of the Korean War The conference brought together many scholars and participants from the war They dealt with many of the historical matters related to the war beginning with its origins while also dealing with the armistice negotiations and the failure of the war as a practice of deterrence However the major focus falls on the nature and ramifications of the war and what can be learned from the results in the long term in regard to the practice of war and foreign policy

To The Last Round Andrew Salmon, 2010-04-25 NEW PAPERBACK EDITION Salmon s vivid use of recollections and dramatic quotes brings alive an unjustly forgotten conflict Time Out With even World War II now just on the edges of living memory and with British forces now engaged in a lengthy brutal and attritional old fashioned war in Afghanistan historical attention is starting to turn to the Korean War of the early 1950s And remarkably the most notorious and celebrated battle in that conflict from a British point of view has never previously been written about at length Andrew Salmon s book which has garnered excellent reviews and sold out two hardback printings already has filled that gap This is the story of the Battle of the Imjin River when the British 29th Infantry Brigade and above all the Glorious Glosters of the Gloster Regiment fought an epic last stand against the largest communist offensive of the war It lasted three days of bitter hand to hand combat By the end of it one battalion of the Glosters some 750 men had been reduced to just 50 survivors Andrew Salmon s definitive history which gained excellent reviews in hardback and sold very steadily is very much in the Antony Beevor mould accessible pacy narrative and painting a moving and exciting picture through the extensive use of eyewitness accounts of veterans of whom he has tracked down and interviewed dozens Andrew Salmon is a Seoul based journalist who writes for The Times The

Washington Times and Forbes magazine He first became fascinated by the battle in 2001 when he met British veterans returning to the Imjin River to mark the 50th anniversary
