When the Bucs Won It All Bill Ranier, David Finoli, 2015-03-07 The 1970s were both successful and tragic for the Pittsburgh Pirates. They won five NL Eastern Division crowns and the 1971 World Championship but lost the great Roberto Clemente in a plane crash and pitcher Bob Moose in a car accident during this time. By the end of the 1970s the Pirates were a good team but no longer considered favorites to win a World Series. Thanks to a fantastic finish in 1978 the Pittsburghers gained new hope for the 1979 season. As intriguing as the season was, it wasn't until the evening of August 25th that the Pirate fans really started to believe it could happen. The history of that magical ball club is covered here from how the 1979 world champion team was built to a thorough look at the season and post season to how The Family finally fell. Also included are biographical sketches of all players who appeared on the team's roster that year and a section of complete statistics.

Illinois Football Media Guide, 1996 The Comprehensive Guide to Careers in Sports Glenn Wong, 2009 As more students enter the growing field of sports management, there is a greater need for information informing them about their career choices. Careers in Sports provides an overview of what students should consider and expect from the varied career options available to them. This book answers the questions students are most likely to have, including what courses they should take, what areas are available to them, what salary can they expect to earn after graduation, and how they can get the job of their dreams. In the highly competitive field of sports management, it is important for individuals to prepare themselves well and to make the right decisions along the way. Although there are no guarantees of success, this book will increase students' likelihood of finding success in the sports industry. Encouraging research and realistic expectations, this book has been developed by an author with many years of experience as a respected practitioner, teacher, and internship coordinator.
