Memoir Of A Manuscript Profane:

Writing for Salvation David Robbins, 2010 Writing for Salvation reads as fiction and it concerns two love stories and three characters Oliver Gamshaw is a young painter escaping the strictures placed upon him by his upbringing Oliver is the incarnation of David Robbins the author and again I was struck by this unusual approach to writing autobiography In Durban in the 1960s he meets a woman shattered by arguably apartheid's most evil concoction the banning of love through the Mixed Marriages and Immorality Acts Oliver falls in love with Lynette and hopes his devotion and love can provide a balm to her destroyed spirit A universal question is implicitly asked Can love redeem people whose lives have been ruined by one truth absolutist thinking and beliefs Book bistro website
