Memorandum 2afrikaans Paper November:

Apartheid's Reluctant Uncle Thomas Borstelmann, 1993 Borstelmann history Cornell U brings to light the neglected history of Washington's strong but hushed backing for the white supremacist National Party government that won power in South Africa in 1948 and for its formal establishment of apartheid Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR

Interpellations, Questions and Replies of the National Assembly South Africa. Parliament (1994-). National Assembly, 1997 Popular Struggles in South Africa Robin Cohen, William Cobbett, 2024-04-01 Popular Struggles or One Struggle Originally published in 1988 shortly after the miners strike in South Africa of 1987 this book begins with a strongly argued and seminal discussion of this question by William Cobbett and Robin Cohen The book had an urgency and relevance at its time of original publication but many of the themes it discusses remain as relevant today Nearly all the contributors were close to the sites of encounter and resistance they described but at the same time they and the editors place the individual cases within the historical context Hitler's Black Victims Clarence Lusane, 2004-11-23 Drawing on interviews with the black survivors of Nazi concentration camps and archival research in North America Europe and Africa this book documents and analyzes the meaning of Nazism's racial policies towards people of African descent specifically those born in Germany England France the United States and Africa and the impact of that legacy on contemporary race relations in Germany and more generally in Europe The book also specifically addresses the concerns of those surviving Afro Germans who were victims of Nazism but have not generally been included in or benefited from the compensation agreements that have been developed in recent years Kleio, 1991 The Politics of Ethnic Nationalism Joanne L. Duffy, 2006 The Politics of Ethnic Nationalism is the first significant local study of National Party and Afrikaner politics By focusing on Stellenbosch as a university and a town the book extends our understanding of the complex interaction between the GNP HNP and various organisations of the radical right The book illustrates at a local level and using detailed materials how identity was constructed through a process of excluding some English Jew Coloured and including others In addition it examines the ways in which Afrikaner nationalists of all shades of political opinion conceptualised their relationships with English speaking South Africans and the ways that the rhetoric of republicanism and anti imperialism were employed by nationalists The study exposes the complex and Byzantine nature of Afrikaner nationalist politics revealing the multiplicity of identities and ideologies co existing within Afrikanerdom the cross cutting allegiances and overlapping loyalties It reveals further the extent to which branches of nationalist organisations were fragmented and the extent to which even individuals could embrace contradictory ideologies Emigrants and empire Stephen Constantine, 2017-03-01 Professor Drummond's two pioneering studies British Economic Policy and the Empire 1919 1939 1972 and Imperial Economic Policy 1917 1939 1974 helped to revive interest in Empire migration and other aspects of inter war imperial economic history This book concentrates upon the attempts to promote state assisted migration in the post First World War period particularly associated with the Empire Settlement Act of 1922. It examines the background to these new emigration experiments, the development of plans for both individual and family migration as well as the specific schemes for the settlement of ex servicemen and of women. Varying degrees of encouragement, acquiescence and resistance with which they were received in the dominions are discussed. After the First World War there was a striking reorientation of state policy on emigration from the United Kingdom. A state assisted emigration scheme for ex servicemen and ex servicewomen operating from 1919 to 1922 was followed by an Empire Settlement Act passed in 1922. This made significant British state funding available for assisted emigration and overseas land settlement in British Empire countries. Foremost amongst the achievements of the high minded imperial projects was the free passage scheme for ex servicemen and women which operated between 1919 and 1922 under the auspices of the Oversea Settlement Committee. Cheap passages were considered as one of the prime factors in stimulating the flow of migration particularly in the case of single women. The research represented here makes a significant contribution to the social histories of these states as well as of the United Kingdom.
