Military Modernisation and Civil-Military Relations in Indonesia Muhamad Haripin, Adhi Priamarizki, Leonard C. Sebastian, 2025-09-30 This book critically examines the development of the post authoritarian Indonesian National Armed Forces Tentara Nasional Indonesia military modernisation agenda and its impact towards civil military relations It offers an original analysis on various and interrelated subjects related to Indonesia's defence development i.e. arms build up organisational development conduct of military operations other than war defence diplomacy and defence economy These analyses offer a better understanding on the role played by the Indonesian military in undertaking a modernisation agenda and sustaining its political influence over the non defence sphere simultaneously Each chapter contributor aims to examine the most recent development pertaining to their topic and the influence of civil military dynamics on their subject matter The book will be of interest to undergraduate and graduate students professionals and experts on Southeast Asian politics defence studies security studies and civil military relations

The Contours of Mass Violence in Indonesia, 1965-68 Douglas Kammen, Katharine McGregor, 2012-09-30 The violence directed against the political left in Indonesia from 1965 until 1968 has been the subject of intense speculation The large number of deaths and brutal interrogations as well as rape torture short and long term detention and on going discrimination inflicted on hundreds of thousands of people makes this a compelling topic However political sensitivities within Indonesia and a dearth of evidence made serious research on the topic extremely difficult under the New Order regime The Contours of Mass Violence in Indonesia presents case studies from diverse locations throughout the Indonesian archipelago The accounts revolve around the impact and interpretations of the September 30th Movement and its aftermath the roles of military and civilian groups in fomenting and perpetrating violence short and long term detention and the legacies of the assault on the political Left Although events unfolded differently in various parts of the country the violence amounted to a counter revolution intended to curtail the mass mobilization and popular participation unleashed by the national revolution some twenty years earlier The goal was to destroy the social bases of President Sukarno's left leaning Guided Democracy and to establish a military regime that was authoritarian and pro Western Students of Indonesia will learn much from the accounts in this volume but the discussion will also benefit scholars concerned with the dynamics of mass violence the Cold War regime change and counter revolution Democratisation in Indonesia After the Fall of Suharto Ingrid Wessel, 2005 Papers from a workshop organized by the Southeast Asian Department of the Humboldt University in October 2004 Extra!, 1999
