The Empire and the Khanate Laura Newby, 2005-06-01 Drawing primarily on Qing archival sources this study charts the changes in Qing policy that characterized the empire s relations with the Central Asian khanate of Khoqand from the Qianlong era to the mid 19th century It explores how the development of Khoqand as a regional power and its involvement with the khoja cause impacted on Qing policy towards Xinjiang Eastern Turkestan and the consolidation of the north western frontier Focussing on the Altishahr region it illustrates how a notion of border defined by geography politics and military logistics began to replace the earlier open and more fluid notion of frontier in Qing political thinking It suggests that these developments presaged a transition from empire to nation state long before the upheavals of the late 19th century Les mandarins Simone de Beauvoir,1956 Women and the Reinvention of the Political Maud Anne Bracke,2014-07-11 This is the first in depth study of the feminist movement that swept Italy during the long 1970s 1968 1983 and one of the first to use a combination of oral history interviews and newly released archive sources to analyze the origins themes practices and impacts of second wave feminism While detailing the local and national contexts in which the movement operated it sees this movement as transnationally connected Emerging in a society that was both characterized by traditional gender roles and a microcosm of radical political projects in the wake of 1968 the feminist movement was able to transform the lives of thousands of women shape gender identities and roles and provoke political and legislative change More strongly mass based and socially diverse than its counterparts in other Western countries at the time its agenda encompassed questions of work unpaid care work sexuality health reproductive rights sexual violence social justice and self expression The case studies detailing feminist politics in three cities Turin Naples and Rome are framed in a wider analysis of the movement s emergence its transnational links and local specificities and its practices and discourses The book concludes on a series of hypotheses regarding the movement s longer term impacts and trajectories taking it up to the Berlusconi era and the present day The New China Review Samuel Couling,1921 Rome et les papes: 1545-1669 conte Tullio Dandolo,1870 LA STELE CHRETIENNE DE LI-NGAN-FOU HENRI HAVRET,1895 New China review ,1921
