Life Orientation 2013 Gr 11 South African Exemplar Paper:

Towards a holistic approach to support learners at risk of interrupted development Macalane J. Malindi, Johnnie Hay, Thabo Makhalemele, 2024-02-23 The COVID 19 pandemic and the restrictions that came with it led to unprecedented disruptions in learner development and put them at risk of poor developmental outcomes It is thus important that the extent of the disruption on their development and the support needs of learners be investigated Researching the impact of the disruption should focus on holistic development In this book the authors use multiple research approaches and methods of gathering data in their respective fields to examine the impact of the disruption and determine the support needs of learners Data gathered through the different methods are processed and findings are presented The findings have implications for both practice and future research in the fields of inclusive education learner support educational psychology movement education Life Orientation and curriculum development Lifespan Development in Context Tara L. Kuther, 2018-01-02 Award winning author Tara L Kuther presents Lifespan Development in Context a topically organized version of her bestselling Lifespan Development text that provides a panoramic view of the many influences that shape human development Kuther s student friendly narrative illustrates how the places sociocultural environments and ways in which we are raised influence who we become and how we grow and change throughout our lives Three core themes resonate throughout each chapter the centrality of context the importance of research and the value of applied developmental science Foundational theories and classic studies are combined with contemporary research and culturally diverse perspectives for a modern introduction to the field that is both comprehensive and concise Visual overviews case studies and critical thinking questions encourage self reflection and class discussion ensuring students have the tools they need to apply course concepts to their lives and future careers The Conflict in Syria and the Failure of International Law to Protect People Globally Jeremy Julian Sarkin, 2021-11-28 This book explores through the lens of the conflict in Syria why international law and the United Nations have failed to halt conflict and massive human rights violations in many places around the world which has allowed tens of millions of people to be killed and hundreds of millions more to be harmed The work presents a critical socio legal analysis of the failures of international law and the United Nations UN to deal with mass atrocities and conflict It argues that international law in the way it is set up and operates falls short in dealing with these issues in many respects The argument is that international law is state centred rather than victim friendly is to some extent outdated is vague and often difficult to understand and therefore at times hard to apply While various accountability processes have come to the fore recently processes do not exist to assist individual victims while the conflict occurs or the abuses are being perpetrated The book focuses on the problems of international law and the UN and in the context of the many enforced disappearances and arbitrary detentions in Syria why nothing has been done to deal with a rogue state that has regularly violated international law It examines why the responsibility to protect R2P has not been applied and why it ought to be used generally and in Syria

It uses the Syrian context to evaluate the weaknesses of the system and why reform is needed It examines the UN institutional mechanisms the role they play and why a civilian protection system is needed It examines what mechanism ought to be set up to deal with the possible one million people who have been disappeared and detained in Syria The book will be a valuable resource for students academics and policy makers working in the areas of public international law international human rights law political science and peace and security studies Life Orientation Gr11 T/g ,
