

Daughter

To my precious daughter, oh so dear
You've blossomed, your graduation is here.
With pride in my heart, I watch you soar
Through countless achievements, you've paved the floor.

From the halls of learning, to the world's embrace
You've shown resilience, strength and grace.
As you step into the future, spread your wings wide.
And know that my love for you, will forever abide.

Congratulations

Mother To Daughter Graduation Poems:

Poems From the Heart of a Woman Glenda Faye Bagley, 2012-10 My mother Lovella Bagley had ten children She taught her family about Jesus and the biblical principles of His word Her dream was to write a book about her husband and all her children She was married to Lee Earnest Bagley Sr for sixty five years he went home to be with the Lord on December 12 2009 My father had a good sense of humor and an extraordinary personality He provided for his family by working at an apartment complex as a Supervisor of Plumbing in Lubbock Texas In my upcoming book Why am I Here I will talk about specifics in our family's life Our mother was diagnosed with Alzheimer's at the age of seventy five and I watched her sad face as the doctor gave her the news I watched her go from a vibrant woman to being in a wheelchair She was determined to finish writing her poetry in her journal because she was quickly losing her memory Her impending illness did not discourage her even though she continued to struggle to remember names events and wording Every night she wrote poems and short stories in her journal that she kept in a silver briefcase Some years passed and my siblings and I became her caregivers Throughout the years I thought about that silver briefcase as our family had relocated to Dallas Texas My brother Rodney decided to take a trip to Lubbock Texas to visit relatives During his visit Rodney went to his storage to get furniture and other items to take back to Dallas As he walked through the storage he looked next to a wall and there laid the silver briefcase that held my mother's poems I was so excited I knew there has to be a reason for us finding the silver briefcase In my book Poems from the Heart of a Woman it presents poetry written by my mother as well as myself
