The Political Economy of Household Services in Europe Clément Carbonnier, 2015-09-01 This edited volume assesses from a variety of perspectives the policies introduced to support the development of household services across Europe. It highlights the impact of these costly policies on the creation of low quality jobs and on labour market dualisation and questions their social and economic outcomes.

"Foreign Artists and Communities in Modern Paris, 1870-1914 " Susan Waller, 2017-07-05 Foreign Artists and Communities in Modern Paris 1870 1914 examines Paris as a center of international culture that attracted artists from Western and Eastern Europe, Asia and the Americas during a period of burgeoning global immigration. Sixteen essays by a group of emerging and established international scholars, including several whose work has not been previously published in English, address the experiences of foreign exiles, immigrants, students and expatriates. They explore the formal and informal structures that permitted foreign artists to forge connections within and across national communities and in some cases fashion new transnational identities in the City of Light. Considering Paris from an innovative global perspective, the book situates both important modern artists such as Edvard Munch, Sonia Delaunay, Marc Chagall and Gino Severini and lesser known American, Czech, Italian, Polish, Welsh, Russian, Japanese, Catalan and Hungarian painters, sculptors, writers, dancers and illustrators within the larger trends of international mobility and cultural exchange. Broadly appealing to historians of modern art and history, the essays in this volume characterize Paris as a thriving transnational arts community in which the interactions between diverse cultures, peoples and traditions contributed to the development of a hybrid and multivalent modern art. Le Figaro Magazine, 2009

Governing by fake news Jacques Baud, 2023-03-07 What is Islamic State seeking to create: a civil war in France, that Syrian President Bashar al Assad used chemical weapons, that Vladimir Putin is trying to destabilise our democracies, that terrorism has struck France, not for what it does but for what it is, that the genocide in Darfur has claimed 400 000 victims. Literally none, but these assertions are enough to establish the foreign policy of Western countries. The author, a former agent of the Swiss strategic intelligence service, reviews the main contemporary conflicts that Western countries have managed with fake news over the last thirty years.

Rei Kawakubo Comme des Garçons Andrew Bolton, 2017-05-01 Widely recognized as among the most important and influential designers of the past forty years, Rei Kawakubo of Comme des Garçons has defined and transformed the visual language of our time. Since her Paris debut in 1981, she has blurred the divide between art and fashion and transformed customary notions of the body, beauty and identity. This lavishly illustrated publication weaves an illuminating narrative around Kawakubo's revolutionary experiments in interstitiality, the space between boundaries. Brilliant new photographs of more than 120 examples of Kawakubo's womenswear for Comme des Garçons, accompanied by Kawakubo's commentary on her designs and creative process, reveal her conceptual and challenging aesthetic as never before. A chronology of Kawakubo's career provides additional context and an insightful conversation with
