

The background of the cover features several pieces of Lyman reloading equipment. On the left, there is a long-reach tool, possibly a necking die, with a wooden handle and a metal head. In the center, there is a smaller tool, possibly a trimmer or a smaller die, also with a wooden handle. On the right, there is a larger, more complex machine, possibly a press or a larger die, with a metal frame and a wooden base. The equipment is arranged in a way that suggests a progression or evolution of reloading technology.
