Music Report On Outlaw Women:

The Oxford Handbook of Music Revival Caroline Bithell, Juniper Hill, 2014 Why is music from the past significant today and how has it been transformed to suit new values and agendas This volume examines the globally recurrent cultural processes of revival resurgence restoration and renewal Interdisciplinary perspectives shed new light on authenticity recontextualization transmission institutionalization globalization and post revival legacies

Women's Leadership in Popular Culture Tracy Everbach, Gwendelyn S. Nisbett, Newly Paul, 2025-10-02 This edited volume examines mass media portrayals of women leaders and other powerful women in popular culture Contributors argue that increased media visibility and representation can lead to more widespread acceptance of women as societal leaders The book employs an interdisciplinary intersectional and international approach to its coverage of these portrayals and their meanings for society and gender norms Through a feminist lens contributors examine these cultural representations within the context of gender race sexuality and social class economic status Contributors write from varied disciplinary backgrounds including journalism media studies communication entertainment studies sociology psychology anthropology political science information science business and education

Music and Medieval Manuscripts Randall Rosenfeld, 2017-07-05 The interdisciplinary approach of Music and Medieval Manuscripts is modeled on the work of the scholar to whom the book is dedicated Professor Andrew Hughes is recognized internationally for his work on medieval manuscripts combining the areas of paleography performance liturgy and music All these areas of research are represented in this collection with an emphasis on the continuity between the physical characteristics of medieval manuscripts and their different uses Albert Derolez provides a landmark and controversial essay on the origins of pre humanistic script while Margaret Bent proposes a new interpretation of a famous passage from a fifteenth century poem by Martin Le Franc Timothy McGee contributes an innovative essay on late medieval music text and rhetoric David Hiley discusses musical changes and variation in the offices of a major saint s feast and Craig Wright presents an original study of Guillaume Dufay Jan Ziolkowski treats the topic of neumed classics an under explored aspect of the history of medieval pedagogy and the transmission of texts The essays that comprise this volume offer a unique focus on medieval manuscripts from a wide range of perspectives and will appeal to musicologists and medievalists alike
