Music is one of an important part of life. It is a form of expression. It has no boundaries, and it follow no guidelines. Essentially, to me, music is like air. It has no true shape or definition, yet we need it in our life. Imagine a world without music. All you're left is dust. Music is live itself.

Let me tell you something, whether you realise or not every single thing around us is music. Even the nature itself is a music. The most beautiful music in the world is the music of nature. It's bring peace in heart and mind. It's harmonize music makes me keep my mind at ease. All the problem is like a piece of sketch when we face it with the symphonize of nature around us. Sound of birds chirping, rain drop and the flows of the river are an example of the music of nature.

The more we explore about music, just then we would realise that it is not only all about rythm, melody or harmony. In the different angle of music is also a tool for learning, theraphy and teaching because it can adjust our moods, and used throughout our lives. So we must manipulise the music so it can posses us with a positive in our daily life. Music can make a huge change and development, the question is how we make use of it? Whether we use it wisely as a medium too succeed or we are the one who being manipulise by it.

When people happy, sad, angry and lots more type of emotion that they confront, it's very common thing for them to listen to the music genre that are suitable for whatever they felt at that very moment. Every single song that are compose by the composer are usally based on the what happen in one's life generally. Not only that, they also make a song based on their own experience. There are lots of famous musicians and composer in the past such as Mozart, Beethoven, Chaplin and many more. All of them are part of music history that succeed to make live till at this very moment.

I used to have a friend that love music so much in his life. He is literally a pianist a very good one actually. His passion towards music pull him into a deep love with piano as deep as his love towards his parents. He can describe as a music genius for someone around our age. Lots of normal people maybe will get tired if they stay in the music room piano the whole day but it's the opposite for him. He never get bored of music especially with his favourite instrument piano. He also one of popular boy in school, but that's not important for him as long as no crush his love music.

Daniel Wong, that's his name, my bestfriend. Now, everything about him just flew by the time passes. All the moment with him are now only parts of memory as he died 5 years ago due to brain cancer. The only thing that left by him for me besides the memory is a sheet of a song compose by

Popular Music Theory and Analysis

Thomas Robinson, 2017-04-21 Popular Music Theory and Analysis A Research and Information Guide uncovers the wealth of scholarly works dealing with the theory and analysis of popular music This annotated bibliography is an exhaustive catalog of music theoretical and musicological works that is searchable by subject genre and song title It will support emerging scholarship and inquiry for future research on popular music Seeing Mahler: Music and the Language of Antisemitism in Fin-de-Siècle Vienna Dr K M Knittel, 2013-01-28 No one doubts that Gustav Mahler's tenure at the Vienna Court Opera from 1897-1907 was made extremely unpleasant by the antisemitic press The great biographer Henry Louis de La Grange acknowledges that it must be said that antisemitism was a permanent feature of Viennese life Unfortunately the focus on blatant references to Jewishness has obscured the extent to which ordinary attitudes about Jewish difference were prevalent and pervasive yet subtle and covert The context has been lost wherein such coded references to Jewishness would have been immediately recognized and understood By painstakingly reconstructing the language of antisemitism Knittel recreates what Mahler's audiences expected saw and heard given the biases and beliefs of turn of the century Vienna Using newspaper reviews cartoons and memoirs Knittel eschews focusing on hostile discussions and overt attacks in themselves rather revealing how and to what extent authors call attention to Mahler's Jewishness with more subtle language She specifically examines the reviews of Mahler's Viennese symphonic premieres for their resonance with that language as codified by Richard Wagner though not invented by him An entire chapter is also devoted to the Viennese premieres of Richard Strauss's tone poems as a proof text against which the reviews of Mahler can also be read and understood Accepting how deeply embedded this way of thinking was not just for critics but for the general population certainly does not imply that one can find antisemitism under every stone What Knittel suggests ultimately is that much of early criticism was unease rather than objective reactions to Mahler's music a new perspective that allows for a re-evaluation of what makes his music unique thought provoking and valuable Studies in Music, 1988 The Public Value of the Humanities Jonathan Bate, 2011-01-27 This book is available as open access through the Bloomsbury Open Access programme and is available on www.bloomsburycollections.com Recession is a time for asking fundamental questions about value At a time when governments are being forced to make swingeing savings in public expenditure why should they continue to invest public money funding research into ancient Greek tragedy literary value philosophical conundrums or the aesthetics of design Does such research deliver value for money and public benefit Such questions have become especially pertinent in the UK in recent years in the context of the drive by government to instrumentalize research across the disciplines and the prominence of discussions about economic impact and knowledge transfer In this book a group of distinguished humanities researchers all working in Britain but publishing research of international importance reflect on the public value of their discipline using particular research projects as case studies Their essays are passionate sometimes polemical often witty and consistently thought provoking covering a range of humanities disciplines from theology to architecture and from media studies to anthropology
