Jimmy Carter
The Carter Center
Emory University
Atlanta, Georgia 30322

Dear President Carter:

I deeply appreciate your gracious invitation to me to participate in The Carter Center's conflict resolution conference on tobacco. This was one of the most fascinating and inspiring experiences I have ever had -- and certainly the most memorable gathering of national figures concerned about the future of tobacco. I especially admire your thoughtful approach and feel that your and Mrs. Carter's presence throughout the meeting -- and your contributions to the discussions -- was the key to facilitating the warm human relationships that evolved.

The conference has made me more hopeful than I have ever been that there will be a fair resolution to the tobacco dilemma.

I would also like to thank Dayle Powell and Rob Amler, who are talented and terrific individuals -- and through whom I have come to better appreciate and admire your aspirations for society and your contributions to the world.

Again, thank you for your thoughtfulness and hospitality -- and for your faith in people.

Sincerely,

Alan Blum, M.D.
