Life Span Human Development Carol K. Sigelman, Linda De George, Kimberley Cunial, Elizabeth A. Rider, 2018-09-01 The third edition of Life Span Human Development helps students gain a deeper understanding of the many interacting forces affecting development from infancy childhood adolescence and adulthood It includes local multicultural and indigenous issues and perspectives local research in development regionally relevant statistical information and National guidelines on health Taking a unique integrated topical and chronological approach each chapter focuses on a domain of development such as physical growth cognition or personality and traces developmental trends and influences in that domain from infancy to old age Within each chapter you will find sections on four life stages infancy childhood adolescence and adulthood This distinctive organisation enables students to comprehend the processes of transformation that occur in key areas of human development This text also includes a MindTap course offering with a strong suite of resources including videos and the chronological sections within the text can be easily customised to suit academic and student needs

Developing and Sustaining Adult Learners Carrie J. Boden, Kathleen P. King, 2013-10-01 Developing and Sustaining Adult Learners is the second volume in a series of scholarly publications associated with the annual Adult Higher Education Alliance AHEA The Alliance conference The title of this volume derived from the theme of the 2012 conference co sponsored by American Association of Adult and Continuing Education AAACE in Las Vegas NV encompasses significant issues and questions at the forefront of the field of adult education At the conference scholars practitioners and adult educators gave presentations and received feedback on some of the most significant and timely issues in their praxis The Alliance which values collaboration transformative dialogue and collegiality among professionals considers this volume a continuation of those conversations as the presentations were expanded into chapters We are glad that you are joining the conversation This volume confirms not only that adult learning higher education and both fields of research have many contexts but also that there is so much more to learn about different perspectives and opportunities for research and practice Opportunities for symbiotic relationship abound We hope that Developing and Sustaining Adult Learners will be a book that you pull off your bookshelf or open in your e reader often We know that as we engage in program and course planning design and teaching this book will provide needed refreshment and new vision When research ideas seem too similar this volume will also provide many seeds for new opportunities Children's Magazine Guide ,2001 Moonshot! John Sculley, 2020-10-01 The former Apple CEO delivers a clear message to individuals entrepreneurs and corporations change or wither Booklist The future belongs to those who see the possibilities before they become obvious This is the most exciting time ever to be part of the business world Throughout history there are some events that stand out as so groundbreaking that they completely change life as we know it The Apollo moon landing of 1961 was one of those events the invention of the Apple personal computer was another In this book John Sculley former CEO of both Pepsi and Apple discusses an era that is giving birth to numerous groundbreaking events and inventions moonshots that will change the way we live and work for generations to come He offers wisdom for a new breed of innovative entrepreneurs to build businesses across industries that will bring in billions of dollars while changing people s lives for the better Moonshot lays out a roadmap for building a truly transformative business beginning with a can t fail concept and drawing on clear examples from companies who ve done innovation right

Intelligence and Exceptionality Jeanne D. Day, John G. Borkowski, 1987 This volume much like its companion text Cognition in Special Children focuses on intellectual and motivational processes that characterize individuals at the extremes of human talent The aim is to understand more about exceptional children how they are like and unlike other children and what intellectual and motivational processes best explain their delayed or accelerated performance The link between exceptionality and intelligence is examined from three perspectives the role of intelligence theories and tests in the diagnosis and classification of retarded learning disabled and gifted children and adolescents the use of intelligence theory to guide educational programming and the importance of special populations for constructing revising and assessing new models of intelligence

The Gifted and Talented Frances Degen Horowitz, Marion O'Brien, 1985 The chapters that this book comprises represent what is known about the gifted and the talented from a developmental perspective As one author after the other stresses this volume is equally a testament to what is not known The chapters in this section Part I reflect the lack of agreement in past research over the nature of giftedness but the authors raise similar questions for future investigations These five chapters set forth major issues facing investigators in the field of giftedness From the diverse points of view emerges one commonality the call for prospective developmental research guided by theory to aid our understanding of the complex of factors that contribute to gifted performance The authors of the chapters in this section Part II discuss giftedness in a social perspective and suggest areas in which research and innovative action might be most useful In this section Part III authors explore approaches to studying the development of the gifted from diverse and innovative points of view
